Lidl's plans for new sign angers neighbours

RESIDENTS on St Andrews Road are continuing to fight supermarket chain Lidl as they submit another planning application to install a luminous sign, pictured, in front of the store.

In 2011, Lidl's application to erect a large illuminated advertising pole at the entrance of the store was rejected by West Dorset District Council after both residents and Bridport Town Council objected to the plans, but now they have submitted another application for a 7.5 metre high and 2.7 metres wide advertising sign.

Members of the St Andrews Road and District Association are once again objecting to Lidl's proposed plans, calling it "ugly" and "obtrusive" and asked members of Bridport Town Council's plans committee to support them during their meeting on Monday.

Addressing councillors, member Simon Williams said: "St Andrews Road is the northern gateway to our town and the World Heritage Site. What will visitors be greeted with? An illuminated advertising totem pole as high as a house to the glory of Lidl and its bakery."

by Lottie Welch

lottie@viewnews.co.uk

"Lidl lies in the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) and opposite and adjoining a conservation area, there is a listed building opposite. Anything that is done there should enhance the environment. The proposed sign will not have a neutral effect.

"A dual use of the pavement has been proposed for a cycle lane and pedestrian route as in Sea Road South. The sign would be a major obstruction to this taking place."

Another member of the residents association, Amanda Lankshear, also objected to the plans: "I live next to Lidl and already there is tremendous amounts of light which emanates from there all day and sometimes all night.

"It already has an effect on the back of my house, shining into my bedroom window, and if this goes ahead then this light will shine directly into my bedrooms at the front and bay window.

"I see no reason why we need another sign there, everybody knows where Lidl is. It is a conservation area and this does not add to the area; it takes away, as does Lidl itself, which is a complete blot on a landscape.

"We are in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and I think that should be respected and I think the application should be refused."

Bronwen Dickenson, who lives two doors up from Lidl next to Amanda, also suffers light pollution from the store.

She said: "I do think it will be very, very ugly, very obtrusive and will take any prettiness that is already left away.

"I don't see the point of it, everyone knows where Lidl is, it is a small town and their sign there is adequate."

Members of the planning committee agreed and Cllr Geoff Ackerman said: "We can't allow that can we? There is too much of it, it's far too high and we can't possibly accept that.

Cllr Sarah Williams said that the council would be objecting to the application on the grounds of impact on neighbours and impact on a conservation area.

Cllr Julian Jones said: "I think we should strongly object, not just object. The further up places like St Katherine's Avenue and up on the tops of Jessopp Avenue and so on, Lidl is very visible and this is a big encroachment on the AONB in a sense.

"They are completely wasting their money. Everybody knows where Lidl is; you can't drive past Lidl without seeing it. It is a perfectly good store, they don't need to advertise it any further."

Cllr Dave Rickard said: "We have already fought this battle with something a fraction of the size, we won the battle on illuminated signs across the whole town.

"Domino's Pizza wanted to put a much smaller totem on the corner of the new car park and that has been turned down, so I think we have got planning law on our side. I think we should refer to previous applications just to remind them [planning officers] they have already turned down something a fraction of the size."

Cllr Rickard also wanted the committee to look into the original application for Lidl and what was required of the store regarding light and screening.

He added: "I seem to recall that there was some request for screening to the houses to the north of the site and I wonder whether you feel that we need to look at the original application and see what was asked for. Even if it wasn't an article, I suggest that it might be possible to ask for it. I think we need to not only object but also point out that they are not behaving in a very neighbourly way."

Residents have until November 4th to submit comments to West Dorset District Council on this planning application at <https://goo.gl/jT17GI>

View From approached Lidl for comment on the matter but they had yet to respond by the time of going to press.

SUSTAINABLE living author and environmentalist Tracey West was born in the East End of London and later moved to Thorncombe, and then Lyme Regis, with her three children. Together with husband Simon, she set up Magic Oxygen Publishing, which launched the Magic Oxygen Literary Prize three years ago, which sees a tree planted in Kenya for every entry submitted. She's also a patron for Women's Action Network Dorset, a member of eco-group Turn Lyme Green and a founding member of Frack Free Lyme Regis.

● TELL us a little about your career history...
I started out in the Square Mile as a PA, stopped work to raise my children in 1997, volunteered in the local charity shop and began writing in earnest about downshifting, environmental issues and simple, green living. My standpoint has always been positive and I love encouraging people to give a positive embrace to living with less. In 2007 I started broadcasting on Apple FM, Musgrove Park's Hospital Radio in Taunton. In 2009, I was commissioned to write "The Book of Rubbish Ideas" and in 2010, became a trustee for the National Association for Children of Alcoholics; unfortunately, I know what a nightmare that situation can be.

● HOW did you come to set up Magic Oxygen Publishing?
My book sold out but the publisher didn't want to reprint, so they gave the rights back to me and my now super-geek second husband, Simon, turned it into an eBook. Shortly afterwards, we published my second title, "Poetry of Divorce for Women", as an actual paperback and things rolled on from there. Incidentally, I'm also a very proud and vocal patron of the Women's Action Network Dorset, the public and fundraising arm of the Dorset Women's Refuge.

● WHAT advice would you give to budding authors?
Launching a book is no easy ride. In 2014, UK publishers released over 20 new books per hour, that equates to 2,875 titles per million inhabitants. Authors have to work harder than ever before to create a positive buzz promoting their work by giving talks, organising book signings and creating a buying market for their words on a website and on social media. The big bookshops have less control over what they stock and are bombarded by sales reps, so an enthusiastic, happy author with a great elevator pitch is often the best weapon to get them to stock their title. We're very grateful for the local support given to us by Serendip.

● YOU launched the Magic Oxygen Literary Prize (MOLP) three years ago - can you tell us a little about the competition?
I wanted to launch a writing contest that planted a tree for every entry. Writers use paper, paper comes from trees and MOLP is a powerful conduit that addresses that balance. Our forestry expert Ru Hartwell suggested Bore in Kenya as a perfect site for our Word Forest. It had suffered greatly from deforestation and trees grown near the equator are extremely efficient at locking down lots of CO2 from the atmosphere and keeping the world cool.

Our Word Forest is now 11 times the size of Wembley Stadium and previous contests also funded the construction of an urgently-needed classroom at Kundeni Primary School in the same community. MOLP3 has just launched and we hope it'll fund a third classroom to help house the 300 children that attend.

● CAN anyone have a tree planted in the Word Forest?
Yes! If they'd like to enter a short story or poem, we have £3,000 in prize money to give away and everyone gets a tree regardless. Once the contest has closed, we'll even send out the GPS co-ordinates of it. Visit MagicOxygen.co.uk/MOLP for details. Alternatively, visit GoFundMe.com/wordforest and help as you wish.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● YOU also run Vittles & Verse poetry nights in Lyme - how can people get involved and what should they expect?
Simon and I set this up last winter to keep the town buzzing in the quieter months and to give literary-loving locals a good night out in one of our splendid eateries. Keian Gillet of the Galley Café on Broad Street is a marvellous host and £5 buys you some delicious soup and bread and a cracking evening of spoken word entertainment - poets get free cake too and there are other refreshments on offer on the second Saturday of each month, 7pm for 7.30pm start. It's totally diverse and you won't believe how many brilliant poets there are in Lyme!

● YOU'RE passionate about green issues and recently launched the Frack Free Lyme Regis group on Facebook - how important is this issue in this area?
It's very important. Shale gas extracted via fracking is an unconventional hydrocarbon, unlike the conventional hydrocarbons currently extracted in Dorset and, as a passionate advocate for sustainable living, I know a well supported combination of green technologies could supply the UK with clean, safe energy. The shocking track record of social chaos and damage to life, land and the water table that has arisen from fracking in the US, Australia, Canada and various other countries, is terrifying. If local water tables are compromised, the water we drink will be too. Incidentally, licences to frack have been granted in Dorchester and around Hinkley Nuclear Plant, there are more to come. I urge everyone to research the topic, frack-off.org.uk is a good place to start.

● ARE you a member of any other local groups?
Yes, Turn Lyme Green is a brilliant organisation that usually meets on the second Tuesday of the month, often at the Royal Lion. It has raised public awareness about several environmental issues over the years.

● YOU went vegan earlier this year - how easy is it to eat out in Lyme Regis?
Very! There are lots of mouthwatering options to be enjoyed at our local Indian restaurants. Dottie Kitchen is brilliant, Tierra Kitchen has a good selection too, as does the Beach House Cafe, the Royal Standard and Royal Lion Hotel, and don't get me started on the sorbets at Frank and Beans!

● WHAT do you like about living in Lyme Regis?
It is such a breathtakingly beautiful spot on the planet and, somehow, it manages to blend rural living and maritime life into cocktail-shaken perfection. Its historic contours and calming landscape have healed my heartache and given birth to creativity I didn't know I had. I adore its weft and weave of literary culture, respect for deep tradition and occasional sparks of modern attitude... and Vic's chips are great too!

Travis Perkins to close 30 branches across the country

NO WORD YET ON LOCAL STORES IN BRIDPORT, LYME REGIS, DORCHESTER AND WEYMOUTH

THE UK's leading building merchant, Travis Perkins, has announced it will close 30 branches, putting 600 jobs at risk.

The company, which has branches in Bridport, Lyme Regis, Dorchester and Weymouth, say the closures are due to "future demand" being hard to predict.

Travis Perkins currently employs 28,000 and has 2,060 stores.

Chief executive John Carter said: "Our operational focus remains on improving all of our customers propositions, optimising our networks, intensifying our use of space and exploiting the scale advantage we have created.

"It is still too early to predict customer demand in 2017 with certainty and we will continue to monitor our lead indicators closely.

"Given this uncertainty we will be closing over 30 branches and making further efficiency driven changes in the supply chain, resulting in an exceptional charge of £40-50 million this year."

The closures include ten smaller distribution and fabrication centres, the write off of certain IT legacy equipment and over 30 branch closures in their trade businesses.

A total of 600 jobs are at risk and it is understood that those concerned are aware of the changes.

It is currently unknown if the branches in West Dorset will be amongst those to close.

■ DORSET artist Brian Rice, pictured, will be at Waterstones in Bridport on Saturday (October 29th) from 10am to 12noon, signing copies of a new book featuring all of his paintings from over the last 64 years.

'Brian Rice: Paintings 1952-2016' has been published to celebrate his 80th birthday.

Rice's paintings are highly collectable and the event also offers the chance to enter a draw to win an original Rice mini-painting.

In the 1960s, Rice was at the heart of the London art scene. As part of the crowd around the Royal College of Art that included David Hockney, Peter Blake, Joe Tilson, Allen Jones and Derek Boshier, he mingled with fashion designers, rock musicians and models.

Film director Michelangelo Antonioni interviewed him when researching the background for 'Blow Up', a film about a fashion designer.

He has also appeared in many TV commercials, fashion shoots and set designs.

In the mid-1970s, Rice left London and retreated to his roots in the West Country where he became a sheep farmer and taught part-time at Brighton College of Art, now the University of Brighton.

Working on the land, he discovered Bronze Age archaeological remains and these inspired a new artistic direction, focused on the landscape and ancient traces of habitation.

Rice's life and art merged when in the 1980s he sold his farm and bought a dilapidated 15th century house at Hewood on the Dorset/Devon/Somerset borders.

He has spent the last 35 years restoring it and uncovering traces of its past, including inscriptions.

His commitment to the project led to him producing more artworks imbued with a sense of place and deep connection to nature.

● Brian Rice: Paintings 1952-2016 is published by Sansom and Company and costs £45.

Police search for tyre menace

AN UNKNOWN person has been letting air out of car tyres in Coronation Road and another vehicle having had novelty dice dust caps removed.

A spokesperson for Dorset Police said: "This is not only causing an inconvenience to the registered keepers but could potentially cause an accident putting lives at risk and would therefore ask residents to report anyone seen to be acting suspicious at the time."

The police are appealing for witnesses and anyone with information to contact them on 101 quoting occurrence number 55160155537.

Waitrose grant for youth and community centre

BRIDPORT Youth and Community Centre has received a boost of more than £300 from the Waitrose Community Matters fund.

A cheque for £314 has handed over to members and trustees of the centre in Gundry Road by Waitrose department manager Mark Andre.

Ros Kayes, chairman of the Bridport Youth and Community Centre Trust, said: "I am really pleased to see Waitrose and the community, via the Community Fund, backing the new look youth centre - it gives extra impetus to everything we hope to achieve. A big thank you to Waitrose."

"We are doing a lot of fundraising events over the next few months and would invite anyone who would like to come along and see what we are doing."

The Waitrose Community Matters fund supports numerous local and national charities each year, which are chosen by customers who vote with a token each time they shop.

Neil Scorey, branch manager of Waitrose Bridport, said: "Local people care about keeping Bridport Youth Centre and its services open."

"We are happy to be able to support its continuation and the great work it does for the young people of the town."

Car parks are 'from the Third World'

THE car parks in West Bay are a total disgrace to Bridport and Dorset.

The West Bay Road car park floods, is overgrown with parts unusable.

The Station and Bridport Arms car parks are gravelled, uneven, potholed, puddled and the scene of many pedestrian falls on the uneven surfaces.

I cannot understand the Lud-dite mentality of the few who complain putting down tarmac and marking out parking bays will change the face of West Bay just by providing needed parking on good surfaces – which incidentally, in this day and age, can be coloured!

Some of these protestors are not even full time residents yet want to inflict their views on the majority regardless of whether it is better for the community. Did this minority consult the local traders before making their pitiful voices heard and for what percentage of locals do they speak - 0.2 per cent?

Since Broadchurch the number of cars entering and seeking parking places in West Bay has risen dramatically.

By marking bays the number of cars that COULD be accommodated would be increased; council revenue and businesses would all benefit as the tourists come to see the now world famous East Cliff.

The West Bay Community Forum continues to fight for the improvement of the car parks as being essential to both residents and businesses as well as general appearance of an area.

The spring bulb planting and Station gardens all go to making West Bay a nicer place but even these projects cannot disguise the Third World car parking facilities.

Who in their right minds can say that a decent tarmac surface is inferior to a gravelled uneven surface?

The person who stated 'the West Bay we know would be no more' is living in the past and could spend her time better by protesting about the Vearse Farm housing development because if that goes ahead there is a good chance the West Bay we already know will be no more.

Dog wardens recognised by RSPCA with certificates

by Lottie Welch
lottie@viewnews.co.uk

WEST Dorset District Council and Weymouth & Portland Borough Council's dog wardens have been awarded a 2016 'Gold Stray Footprint' by the RSPCA.

The accolade was given as part of the RSPCA's Community Animal Welfare Footprints (CAWF) Awards in recognition of the district and borough's stray dog service for providing a 'gold standard' in terms of animal welfare.

Cllr Alan Thacker, community safety and access portfolio holder for West Dorset District Council, said: "I would like to congratulate the team on a thoroughly deserved award."

"They do a lot more than simply dealing with dog fouling, so it is good to see that their hard work is being highlighted by a leading animal welfare charity."

Cllr Francis Drake, community safety briefholder for Weymouth and Portland Borough Council, said: "Our dog wardens carry out an extremely challenging and difficult job, but one that is vitally important to our community. It is great news to see them receiving recognition nationally."

The dog warden team will be attending the CAWF winners reception in London on November 30th to celebrate their achievements alongside the other winners.

WEST Dorset District Council and Weymouth & Portland Borough Council's dog wardens have been awarded a 'Gold Stray Footprint' for providing a high standard in terms of animal welfare

Tea party fundraiser for Mencap

AN AFTERNOON tea party in aid of West Dorset Mencap will be held at Walditch Village Hall on Saturday, November 5th from 3pm to 5pm.

Bothenhampton Knit and Natter will be selling their hand-knitted items and there will also be a raffle and a book stall.

All proceeds will go to West Dorset Mencap, which provides help and support to people with a learning disability living in West Dorset and also offers support to their families, dependants and carers.

Bluebird Care celebrates its fifth birthday

LOCAL care at home provider, Bluebird Care Dorset, will celebrate their fifth anniversary next week on November 4th.

From humble beginnings with the opening of their first office on Lynch Lane in Weymouth in 2011, the business has grown and now includes a further five locations including the Bridport office, which opened in April 2015 on East Street.

Bluebird Care Dorset currently provides in the region of 10,000 care visits each month to over 300 customers across the county to support them living independently at home.

Co-director Chris Scriven said: "We are very happy with how the last five years have gone as we have been successful in bringing quality care at home provision to vulnerable adults across the county, and our expansion with the additional offices has made us more accessible to those in rural areas as well as the towns.

"As we now have a base in Bridport, we are able to much more effectively cover the far west of the county and we are proud of the fact that we never charge mileage to our customers for getting to and from the care visit no matter how remotely they live."

The company and staff have enjoyed a spate of success in both local and regional awards over the last five years.

Accolades include being finalists for three years in a row in the Care Innovators category of the Great South West Care Awards, winning in 2014, as well as having a further five finalists in four categories in this year's awards.

Co-director Joanne McMahon said: "We are pleased that our determination to focus on quality and customer service has paid dividends.

"Our approach in never cutting corners involves a lot of hard work on the part of our dedicated staff teams but we are glad to be able to see the rewards of this through the way in which the service has been able to develop.

"Quality of care does matter and we always aim to distinguish ourselves in a positive way from other providers."

The care provider has also channelled more than £50,000 into causes supporting vulnerable adults through there Bluebird Care Community Grant Scheme.

Bridport charities the Living Tree cancer support group and Pathways to Care have both benefitted from this fund and were awarded £250 each.

Mr Scriven added: "While our care at home visits are the backbone of the work we do, we recognise that there are other groups out there providing invaluable services to vulnerable people and we aim to support them where we can.

"Our remit is to help promote our customer's well-being and we can do that both through the provision of our own services and through supporting local groups with a similar remit."

Driving ban for curry man

AXMINSTER resident Alasdair Marshall has pleaded guilty at Weymouth Magistrates Court to drink driving.

Mr Marshall was stopped by officers driving his Spice and Rice van on the evening of September 16th in West Allington, Bridport.

When breathalysed, Mr Marshall provided a breath sample of 54 microgrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath. The alcohol limit for drivers is 35 microgrammes per 100 millilitres of breath.

He received a 14 month ban from driving, a £210 fine and £85 costs.

Paxman and Paddy to speak at literary festival

A BRIDPORT solicitors and book store have joined forces to sponsor this year's Bridport Literary Festival.

Taking place from November 6th to November 13th, the celebration of books and literature is hosting a range of talks and activities in venues across the town.

This year's festival includes talks from journalist and broadcaster Jeremy Paxman, former Lib Dem leader Paddy Ashdown, as well as TV presenters Alan Titchmarsh and Ben Fogle.

Both Kitson & Trotman and Waterstones are the main sponsors for the festival this year.

Festival director Tanya Bruce-Lockhart said: "The festival is now in its 12th year and grows from strength to strength, but we do rely on the generosity and support of our main sponsors, Kitson & Trotman Solicitors and Waterstones, who are unfailing in their enthusiasm and generosity."

Richard King, a partner of Kitson & Trotman, said the firm was pleased to support Bridport Literary Festival.

He said: "We sponsor a number of events in the area and always look forward to the festival. It is such a good event for the town."

Waterstones manager Nick Macey said that books by the writers who are speaking at the event are now starting to arrive at Waterstones.

The bookshop on East Street is stocking copies of all the books that are the subject of the week of talks and will also be at each event so that people can buy the books and get them signed by the authors.

Mr Macey said: "It is a lot of hard work but always great fun. There are some really interesting people coming this year."

Tanya Bruce-Lockhart added: "As well as Jeremy Paxman and Ben Fogle, events include Philip Eade talking about his biography of Evelyn Waugh, Edward Wilson-Lee talking about the hazards of producing Shakespeare in Africa and the Queens of Crime, Sophie Hannah and Janet Ellis, sharing some of their crime writing secrets."

For more information about Bridport Literary Festival and a list of all events, visit www.bridlit.com

Double gold for Stoke Abbott micro bakery at Taste of the West Awards

THE team at The Wobbly Cottage, a micro bakery based in Stoke Abbott, are celebrating after two of their products took home gold at the Taste of the West Awards this year.

Their Scotch egg with curry mayonnaise and their olive sourdough – which was also crowned champion savoury bakery product – were both awarded the accolade.

Danielle Wright, of The Wobbly Cottage, said: "We are thrilled to have been given two gold awards in our first year of entering the Taste of the West Awards.

"For one of these golds to then be converted into a champion product is amazing and makes all the work we have put into The Wobbly Cottage over the last few years more than worth it."

Everything's rosy for Apple Day

BIG crowds flocked to the Bridport Community Orchard to celebrate its ninth Apple Day.

Numerous apple-based activities and refreshments were on offer for the crowds as well as a range of entertainment.

Paul Arthur, secretary of the orchard committee, said: "Bridport Community Orchard's ninth Apple Day was a resounding success.

"Several hundred people turned out to benefit from a wonderfully warm sunny morning to enjoy the annual celebration of the apple.

"There was a wide range of attractions that suited all age groups, ranging from fun activities and pond-dipping for the children, to freshly-pressed apple juice for everybody to enjoy.

"Music and entertainment was provided by Wyld Morris and musicians that included David Powell, Mitch Norman and David Squirrel's Yellow Room. Martin Maudsley's story telling went down a storm and transfixed children and adults alike.

"A range of stalls selling the likes of pickled onions, ploughman's lunches and cider added further interest to the mix.

"Fortunately the predicted heavy rain held off until the end of the celebrations.

"The successful event would not be possible without the help and hard work provided by the large dedicated band of volunteers and the very kind offerings from our donors and sponsors, including Ford Farms, Elwell Fruit Farm and Groves Nurseries. The Walditch WI did sterling work providing refreshments."

Golden Cap Association to host 'Antiques Roadshow' expert

ANTIQUES Roadshow regular Paul Atterbury will be the speaker at the next Golden Cap Association talk.

Mr Atterbury, a freelance writer and lecturer specialising in 19th and 20th century art and design, will be talking about what life was like behind the scenes in the making of this iconic BBC programme.

Despite his never having had an ambition to appear on television, he has been part of the Antiques Roadshow team for more than 25 years.

With a huge variety of interests and expertise, including railway history, World War One, sculpture and 1920-30s jazz, Mr Atterbury has dealt with a whole range of objects as part of the show's team.

He also used to live in Eype and has published books of old postcards showing Eype and West Bay.

He was also formerly a historical advisor to Royal Doulton and editor of 'The Connoisseur', a magazine that covered luxury items for collectors.

His books include 'Moorcroft: a Guide to Moorcroft Pottery', 'Branch Line Britain: A Nostalgic Journey Celebrating a Golden Age', 'Poole Pottery: Cater and Co. and Their Successors' and 'Along Lost Lines'.

The talk takes place at Bridport United Church Hall on Monday, October 31st at 2.30pm.

Admission costs £3 and includes tea, coffee and biscuits. It is a non-ticket event and admission is on a first come, first served basis.

The Golden Cap Association West Dorset is a local group of National Trust members and accredited volunteers who support the work of the trust throughout West Dorset.

For more information call 01308 863577.

West Bay Days' Bonfire by the Beach

WEST Bay Days' Bonfire by the Beach returns this Saturday (October 29th), offering a great evening out for the family.

The event takes place on East Beach in West Bay from 5.30pm and the bonfire will be lit at 6pm. There will be live music, an outdoor bar, food and other stalls with a fireworks display at 8pm.

Entry is free but donations will be appreciated and the proceeds will go towards supporting West Bay Days 2016 charities, including Bridport Barracudas, Bridport Youth Football Club, West Bay WI and Greenhills, which provides support and care for adults with learning disabilities and additional complex needs.

Learn how to protect yourself in Dorset Crime Awareness Week – on now

DORSET Police and Trading Standards will be warning residents to 'be sure who's at your door' in a week of action.

The organisations will be holding Doorstep Crime Awareness

Week this week – from Monday, October 24th to Friday, October 28th – to raise the profile of the issue and to advise members of the public on how they can prevent themselves from falling victim to rogue traders and distraction burglars.

Neighbourhood Policing Teams (NPTs) will be joining forces with Trading Standards, other partner agencies, businesses and community groups, to engage with residents across Dorset.

They will be at TSB in Bridport today (Wednesday, October 26th) from 10am to 2pm.

Inspector Ernie Henley, Dorset Police crime lead, said: "Doorstep criminals will use persuasive techniques in an attempt to deceive victims and enter their homes.

"Throughout this awareness week, we hope to bring information and advice to as many people as possible.

"Doorstep criminals will target anyone, but often prey on the most vulnerable members of our communities, Dorset Police is working with our partners to protect the public and bring offenders to justice.

"We would urge members of the public to come along to one of our events to receive advice about rogue traders, distraction burglars and any other related concerns."

Rogue traders will offer services such as gardening work or house maintenance at seemingly competitive prices, but will provide work which is substandard, unnecessary or overpriced.

Richard Herringshaw, of Trading standards, said: "Rogue traders will often attempt to con vulnerable people out of large sums of money, in many cases their life savings.

"Aside from the financial impact, studies show that being a victim of doorstep crime has a detrimental effect on health, confidence and ultimately an individual's independence.

"If you do need work done around your home, please visit www.buywithconfidence.gov.uk to find a Trading Standards Approved Trusted Trader."

Distraction burglars make up a story to gain entry into a property; they will distract you whilst they or an accomplice steals items of value. This could include purses, wallets, jewellery and cash.

Detective Inspector Neil Wright, of the Dorset Police Priority Crime Team, said: "The stories distraction burglars fabricate can range from claiming to be a neighbour looking for a lost ball, a representative from a utility company or an official from a reputable organisation such as the police or council.

"If you are not sure who is at your door – don't open it.

"Burglars may enter the rear of your home when you are busy answering the front door to their accomplice, always keep your doors and windows secure and use a door chain before opening your door if you have one."

If anyone has been a victim of doorstep crime, they can report it by going to www.dorset.police.uk and following the 'do it online' function or send an email to 101@dorset.pnn.police.uk or call 101.

To find an approved trader or report an incident of rogue trading to Trading Standards, call the Citizens Advice Consumer Service on 03454 04 05 06 or visit www.buywithconfidence.gov.uk.

Anyone who suspects a rogue trader or distraction burglar at their door should call the police immediately on 999.

Councillors join celebration of Catholic Church refurbishment

■ BRIDPORT mayor, Cllr Ros Kayes, and members of the town council enjoyed a short service in the newly extended and refurbished Catholic Church in Victoria Grove earlier this month. It was led by Father Richard Meyer to share with the wider community of Bridport the new church and what it has to offer. During his homily, Fr. Richard reminded the congregation that people are all here for each other, to be welcoming and outreaching. The service was followed by tea in the hall. The church is open everyday and all are welcome. Cllr Ros Kayes is pictured right with Fr. Richard.

Groves 'tree-mendous' weekend

GROVES Nurseries will be holding their autumn 'tree-mendous' weekend on October 29th and 30th, celebrating trees with some special offers, plus free advice from their expert nurserymen on planting, caring and pruning.

Groves grow more than 1,000 trees every year and stock over 150 varieties of ornamental trees and 70 varieties of fruit trees.

On hand will be tree experts Steve and Gary, who can give advice on trees for small gardens, autumn colour, spring blossom, wildlife or all year interest.

There will also be a wide range of fruit trees available, including apples, pears, plums, gages, cherries, apricots, nectarines, peaches, medlars and quinces, including espalier, step over and fan trained varieties or family trees that have three varieties of pear or apple on one tree.

MAKE THE MOST OF CHARMOUTH'S PARKING REFUND SCHEME

With 2 hours free parking you have plenty of time to see what the village has to offer...

Why come to Charmouth?

CHARMOUTH is a traditional village with a surprisingly good choice of shops and places to eat and drink.

The village boasts a family butcher, traditional bakery, a well-stocked Nisa convenience store, a newsagent/hardware shop, a pharmacy and a post office. You will also find three enticing craft/gift shops, a carpet retail shop, two hairdressers, a helpful estate agent and an amazing fossil shop. For food and refreshment, you can choose from two pubs, two cafes and an excellent fish and chip shop.

All the businesses on these three pages are family owned and run and pride themselves on offering a friendly welcome and good old-fashioned service, providing all your everyday needs at very reasonable prices. If you can't find what you need, just ask and they may be able to order it for you.

In two hours you can do your essential shopping and still have time to choose a gift, get your hair done, or just relax over a drink or a meal.

So come and be suprised at what Charmouth has to offer - you'll want to come back!

Have you ever visited www.charmouth.org?

We share the website with the Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre and it is a very good source for Charmouth information. All the shops, holiday parks, pubs and cafes are on the site, which also features events, walks, maps and links to Charmouth history and the library.

Makers' market returns to Highlands End Holiday Park

THE annual Eype Makers' Market returns to Highlands End Holiday Park this month with a whole host of local makers and producers.

This year will see the tenth Christmas market with nearly 50 local artisans presenting skills from stained glass to quilting and willow work to decoupage, as well as photography, jewellery and demonstrations.

Pauline Bale, a committee member of the market, said:

"We are celebrating our tenth Eype Makers' Market, it is a special one!

"Well, every makers' market has been special because we always overflow with so many talented local makers.

"As we are a very small committee, we really appreciate the support given to us by the staff at Highlands and our thanks to Martin, Vanessa, James and Robert for offering the venue and being so helpful.

"The event has become extremely well supported and each year you will find many new, as well as established, artists, makers, bakers and craftspeople at Eype Makers' Market.

"We are always looking for variety of very unique work.

"We strive to maintain a balance of crafts and try hard to give new people the opportunity to showcase their work.

"It is a real chance to find unique handmade local gifts for Christmas in a wonderful market atmosphere. It is never too early to start looking and shop local.

"We hope you will linger for longer and enjoy the friendly ambience and opportunity to speak to our makers."

The market is a charity event and has been a focus of fundraising for many charities over the years.

The door raffle is for a charity chosen by a committee member and last year they raised £1,000 for the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and they also donated annually to local churches and The Wallbridge Trust.

New for this year, a cake sale in aid of Great Ormond Street Hospital and people are being urged bake cakes, tray bakes and cupcakes to be sold during Eype Makers' Market.

Anyone who is interested should call Pauline on 01308

424321 or email bale@highwayfarm.co.uk

The Christmas market takes place on Sunday, October 30th from 10am to 4pm at Highlands End Holiday Park in Eype.

■ AROUND 100 members of local churches came together for a barn dance on Saturday, October 15th to celebrate life and friendship. The event was hosted by Bridport United Church and the Reverend Peter Clark set the tone for an evening of praise through dance and music by starting off with a blessing. Ruth Jenkins and Vince O'Farrell took turns calling the dances with live music by the Real Elastic Band - 11 musicians who collaborated especially for the event. Everyone brought a plate of food to share, which was enjoyed after Harry Britten said grace, and the evening finished with everyone singing 'You Shall Go Out With Joy'.

Bothenhampton snake surprise

■ A LOCAL couple received a slithery surprise when tending to their garden. Leslie and Patricia Neilson, who live in Bothenhampton, were removing some nets over their fruit bushes and found a snake tangled in the bottom.

Mr Neilson said: "We don't know how long it had been there but it was well and truly trapped. My wife Patricia, (pictured) who is braver than me, cut the netting and we managed to free the snake. We called the RSPCA and they confirmed that it more than likely was a grass snake. We released it into the long grass behind our house and we have not seen it since."

Accountants welcome trick-or-treaters for charity

LOCAL accountants Scott Vevers are getting in to the spooky spirit of Halloween, and are encouraging trick-or-treaters to visit their East Street branch in Bridport on Halloween.

During the daytime of Friday, October 28th and Monday, October 31st, children, accompanied by an adult, are welcome to visit their 'queens of Halloween', Liz and Carol in reception, and put some pennies in a collection tin for the Teenage Cancer Trust and pick up a sweet.

Managing director Marcus Cridland said: "There is usually nothing to be scared of at Scott Vevers, but this year we thought it would be fun to scare a few pennies out of people for a good cause.

"The Teenage Cancer Trust is an amazing charity with 28 specialist units, bringing young people aged between 13 and 24 together to be treated by teenage cancer experts in a place designed just for them."

Brewery funds Bandits' new kits

THE Bridport Bandits has had a boost from The Palmers Brewery Fund with a £1,000 donation for their racing kits for this coming season.

Darren Batten, head brewer and director at Palmers Brewery, presented a cheque to the group during one of the vehicle racing club's evening sessions at their garage next to Bridport Youth Centre.

The Bandits is a voluntary organisation that has been running for 23 years. It aims to give young people in Bridport, aged between 11 and 18, a chance to gain hands on experience in a workshop and go on to race the vehicles they build and maintain.

Mr Batten said: "Palmers is thrilled to have another opportunity to support the Bandits, they have a long relationship with Bridport and are a great vehicle for young people to learn life skills and get into motorsport."

"Many of the club's previous members have made their way into the local automotive industry and we are delighted to be able to support such a valuable community asset."

Lou Barron, of Bridport Bandits, said: "Fireproof racing suits are an essential but expensive requirement for all racing clubs.

"We are very grateful that Palmers have been able to sponsor us again this year so that our teams can keep racing and representing Bridport at meets across the South West."

The Palmers Brewery Fund was established to support local charities and initiatives with awards made twice a year. The deadline for applications is May 1st and November 1st. For more information visit www.palmersbrewery.com/fund

The Bridport Bandits is self funded and new members are always welcome. Sessions cost £2 and are held between 7pm and 9pm on Monday and Thursday evenings. For more information visit www.bridportautograssracingclub.co.uk

Death Row artist's work on show at Bridport Arts Centre

AN art exhibition depicting the practice and history of capital punishment by an artist awaiting execution is now on display at Bridport Arts Centre.

'Who Lives, Who Dies, Who Decides' comprises work by Kenneth 'Kenny' Reams, who has been on death row in Arkansas since 1993 for a crime he committed when he was 18-years-old.

The exhibition is a key component of 'Art for Amicus' a series of exhibitions by artists awaiting execution across the US.

More than 50 works of art are on display, including pencil drawings, acrylic paintings and several installations.

The aims of his exhibition and of Art for Amicus are to highlight the importance of art to those in difficult circumstances and to raise awareness of the human rights issues surrounding the use of the death penalty.

Kenny's mother was only 15 when she gave birth to him. She suffered mental health issues and there was alcohol and substance abuse in the household and his father had no contact with him.

Kenny left home at 13, falling in with a group of older offenders in a small, crime-ridden town.

In 1993, aged 18, he was arrested with a friend in connection with a hold-up at gun point and the victim had been shot dead by a single bullet. Kenny did not pull the trigger but has otherwise never denied involvement.

Both Kenny and his co-defendant were offered a plea deal – a life sentence without the possibility of parole for a guilty plea. Kenny stood trial, not believing his role justified life imprisonment, let alone execution, while his co-defendant accepted the deal.

However, Kenny was sentenced to death and at the time he was the youngest death row inmate in Arkansas.

He started to draw whilst in prison, a talent which he had always had but never developed.

Bringing Kenny's message and art to the UK was the brainchild of barrister Samantha Knights, who first met Kenny in 2000 during a capital defence internship with Amicus.

He would write to her and send pencil drawings and Samantha began to send him art materials.

In 2014, Kenny's work was exhibited in Little Rock, the capital of Arkansas, and Samantha suggested a UK exhibition.

She said: "Through the medium of art it is hoped that people will reflect on issues of crime and punishment, not just how it is carried out in the US but also more generally. That is what Kenny hopes to achieve through this exhibition."

Amicus is a legal charity that fights for justice on US death rows and helps to provide legal assistance to those facing execution.

Kenny Reams' exhibition is at Bridport Arts Centre until November 26th.

Olive Tree charity brunch

THE Olive Tree restaurant's annual fundraising West Country Charity Brunch is back next month.

The event takes place on Friday, November 4th from 10am to 12noon and tickets cost £12.50, with all proceeds going to the Cystic Fibrosis Trust.

Local student Eva Luna and her friends will also be selling cakes outside of the restaurant on Saturday, November 5th from 10am to 12noon.

This is the 10th year the team have raised funds for the charity: last year they raised more than £2,000.

Tickets are available at the restaurant on East Street and donations and raffle prizes will be gratefully received.

Behind the scenes look at hospital

DORSET County Hospital held its annual open afternoon – attracting hundreds of visitors.

While young visitors took soft toys to the “teddy bear clinic” for a bandage and some TLC, older visitors were having their blood pressure checked and running tests for diabetes.

Medics from the hospital demonstrated their robotic mannequin used to test their life saving skills while also taking tours of an operating theatre, the hospital pharmacy and the endoscopy department.

An ambulance crew were at the event to talk about their work and show the curious inside an emergency ambulance while the Dorset BikeSafe team were also taking part in the event.

Visitors were also able to learn about the work of the trust, which runs the hospital, and the fund-raising efforts of the DCH Charity, including the current £1.5million appeal to improve radiography services in Dorchester.

Said Chief Executive Patricia Miller: “This is a chance for us to showcase the wonderful work that goes on at the hospital, often behind the scenes.

“Staff have put a lot of work into organising this afternoon.”

Richard III memorial to be unveiled

THE unveiling of the memorial to commemorate King Richard III staying in Bridport in 1483 will be held 533 years to the day after the visit on Saturday, November 5th.

The ceremony will take place at 2pm by east bridge, with the memorial being placed beside the River Asker and facing the bay window that is one of the few remains of the mediaeval Priory of St John the Baptist. It is here that King Richard is considered to have lodged.

The memorial has been made possible by public donations and by a contribution from the Richard the Third Society.

One of the contributors, Sir Philip Williams, the High Sheriff of Dorset, has confirmed his attendance at the unveiling, along with Bridport town crier John Collingwood.

The memorial is being crafted by stone masons Christine and Karl Dixon.

It will be made of white Portland stone and, as well as containing relevant details relating to the King's visit, will also depict Richard's crest – the white boar – and his personal motto 'Loyaulté me lie', which means 'Loyalty binds me'.

For more information email a.c.woodgate@btinternet.com or call 01308 423767.

LOCAL musician John D Revelator and friends playing in the Ropemakers pub as part of the 'We Shall Overcome' event

Bridport digs deep for food bank with 'We Shall Overcome'

THE people of Bridport have shown their support for all those in their community by raising hundreds of pounds for a local food bank at the recent 'We Shall Overcome' events.

This year two events were held, a talk on the recent history of protest music and a day of music at the Ropemakers pub on Saturday, October 8th – which raised money and donations of food and supplies for the Cupboard Love food bank.

They were part of a national series of events called 'We Shall Overcome', which involved more than 260 separate gigs and activities across the country to raise money for those in need within their communities.

Music filled the West Street pub from 3pm and featured many local performers, including Garry 'Slide Man' Smith, John D Revelator with Ashley Reed, Those Voices Poor, Nature Cage, Abi Rich, The Seed Bombers, Behind Closed Doors, Ruthy Ni Conallian, Jamie MacDonald and Black Water County.

Earlier in the week, an audience at WI Hall were treated to a fascinating talk – 'Revolution

Per Minute' – from journalist, musician and activist Neil Duncan-Jordan.

It explored protest music since the 1930s and touched on folk, blues, jazz and hip-hop in tracing the development of the genre.

The events, including a generous donation from John and Geraldine at the Ropemakers, raised a total of £769.39 for the food bank, along with more than £100 worth of food donations.

Keith Hatch, who organised the events, said: "It was a brilliant couple of days and I really can't get over how generous people were with their donations."

"It is very sad that in the 21st century and one of the richest countries in the world, people need to rely on food banks to survive."

"However, these events were about local people supporting each other and Bridport really shone through."

"The musicians speaker, pub staff, volunteers and local businesses who supplied raffle prizes were brilliant, but most important it was the public who came to the event and gave so generously."

Canon Andrew Evans, from St Mary's Church in Bridport, organises Cupboard Love and said: "The We Shall Overcome fundraising events in Bridport were amazing."

"At the Ropemakers, donations of food and money rolled in from the start and did not stop. Everyone gave what they could and I am honestly amazed at the amount raised."

"All the money will be spent on Christmas hampers which will just make it a wonderful time for some people who really need a hand up."

"Bridport is a really dynamic town where people are making it very clear that they will not tolerate food poverty; they will not sit back and watch the chaos caused in people's lives by cuts in benefits, zero hour contracts and the loss of an income caused by ill health."

"Lives unravel really quickly and because people support Cupboard Love food bank with donations of money and food, we can walk alongside individuals and families who are having an awful time."

Dorset Police reassures public over latest crime statistics

DORSET Police are reassuring the public on its latest crime statistics after figures revealed recorded crime rose by 14 per cent last year.

This is according to the Office for National Statistics and the figures are from July 1st 2015 to June 30th 2016 compared with the previous 12 month period.

The increase in crime reported to police was predicted by the force in July last year and has been regularly discussed at Police and Crime Panel meetings. It follows a national trend across England and Wales, with rises already seen in most police force areas.

Deputy Chief Constable James Vaughan said: "Dorset Police has worked hard to improve our compliance with the complex Home Office Counting Rules, and to ensure the public are confident to report crime to us.

"We have demonstrated we are fully committed to meeting the very high standards set out by the government and crime recording, which are inspected through HM Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC).

"As a consequence of improved practice, the force is publishing increases in total crime which I wish to reassure you is due to a greater emphasis being placed on accuracy."

Changes to crime recording over the past 12 months have also apparently had an effect on the figures released.

One change is the inclusion of malicious communications into the category of 'harassment' and therefore into the broad category of 'violent crime'. This contributed to a 37 per cent rise in total violent crime.

Other increases have resulted from focused police activity, such as the work of the Paedophile Investigation Team proactively seeking out offenders.

As a result of the work of the Dorset Police Safeguarding Referral Unit and referrals from other partner agencies, Dorset has also seen an increase in reports of child neglect.

Dorset is among a minority of police forces that were graded as 'good' in the HMIC vulnerability inspection last year.

The force was praised for its work to encourage people to report sexual offences, domestic abuse and other crimes involving vulnerable victims.

Deputy Chief Constable Vaughan added: "Our safeguarding activity and our victim-focused approach has led to more people coming forward to report crimes affecting the most vulnerable in the county.

"We make no excuse for encouraging people to report such crimes – whatever impact it has on statistics.

"I can reassure people that Dorset remains a safe place to live, work and visit. The officers and staff of Dorset Police are committed to ensuring it stays that way."

Acting Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner, Colin Pipe, said: "Ensuring that people feel confident to report crime, whatever their situation, is a critical part of British policing.

"I am confident that the increase we are seeing is due to this enhanced trust, along with better recording practices, reflecting trends nationally.

"This rise has been articulated to the media and to the public many times in the last nine months, before these official figures were released.

"Reducing the overall number of victims of crime in Dorset is a long term objective of the commissioner's second term in office and Dorset Police will continue to adapt with the changing nature of policing to aim at achieving that."

Children's charity asks Dorset to have a heart this Halloween

WORLD Vision, the world's largest international children's charity, is asking people in Dorset to remember the vulnerable children of Syria this Halloween by ditching the scary face on their pumpkins and carving a heart instead.

World Vision's annual 'Carve a Heart' campaign aims to help children living in the world's poorest countries, and this year the charity is focusing on the children of Syria.

A spokesperson for the charity said: "As children across the UK prepare to head out for a night of 'fun' fear on October 31st, millions of children in Syria live in real fear every night of the year. Seven and a half million of these children are growing up knowing nothing but conflict.

"Internal conflict in the country has left more than two million children out of school with thousands facing violence, kidnap and malnutrition.

"Children like Khalid, 11, a refugee now living in Lebanon, whose parents were injured when fleeing Syria leaving them unable to work and forcing Khalid to sell biscuits for long hours to help his family survive.

"Khalid is now living in one of the many tent settlements that have popped up in the city, where he wants to forget about the war.

"World Vision is on the ground helping children do just that, by building child friendly spaces to help war stricken children feel safe, learn, play and enable them to just be children.

"Join us this Halloween to take one simple action. Carve a heart in your pumpkin as a symbol of hope for children living in fear."

People can also support the charity by texting HEART to 70060 to donate £3 to World Vision's work.

Busby Auctioneers & Valuers

FOLLOWING on from the recent success of their Fine Art Sale, Busby's General Sale to be held on Thursday November 3 at their Bridport salerooms will offer the usual diverse range of lots including jewellery, silver and gold items, medals, glass, cameras, vinyl records, toys, clocks and watches. The sale begins with a good selection of ceramics to include some good pieces of Clarice Cliff including "Bizarre" works such as a 1930s Art Deco 'Marlene' wall mask and a Teddy Bear bookend. Other pieces will be available and include works by Honiton Pottery and Royal Worcester.

To follow will be a good selection of pictures and furniture to finish to include a large amount of modern teak furniture and vintage clothing and textiles.

Highlights from the October Fine Art Sale mentioned above included a Royal Doulton figurine titled 'Sunshine Girl' which realised £2,270, a Japanese netsuke from the Meiji period in the form of a monkey (£860) and an 18ct gold gents full hunter pocket watch (£1,290). Pictures also did well with a painting by Vanessa Bell reaching £7,000 and another of a young boy playing with a cat realizing £3,685. In the vintage clothing section a bolt of antique Chinese silk made £980 and some antique chintz curtains originally from Parnham House, Beaminster realised £735.

Busby will be holding their next General Sale on Thursday December 8. Entries are invited. Catalogues, results and viewing times are available on line at busby.co.uk

Festive 2016 Fayre

A 8 page guide to planning your perfect festive dining experience in East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset

Broadwindsor Craft Centre

Celebrate Christmas at Broadwindsor Craft Centre

THE Broadwindsor Craft and Design Centre has been situated in the heart of the West Dorset's beautiful rolling countryside for the past 29 years. Redundant farm building on the edge of the village were the starting point but today the Craft Centre is renowned for its excellence and quality.

The Centre boasts a large restaurant that prides itself on serving delicious home cooked food every day, using quality local produce. The Centre is open from 10am-5pm every day and the restaurant serves breakfast from 10-11:30am, lunch from 12-2pm and cakes and cream teas until 5pm.

Every day of the week you will find a selection of delicious hot dishes to choose from in the restaurant all served with salad or vegetables and potatoes. There are plenty of cold and light options available as well including ploughman's lunches, sandwiches and toasts.

Our restaurant will be serving Christmas lunches on Tuesday's and Thursday's, from November 15th until December 20th (Counter service). If you reserve a table for eight or more people, we will supply crackers and table gifts.

However, it's not all about the restaurant at the Craft Centre. The Christmas room is now open with lots of Christmas decorations, wrapping paper, advent calendars, toys, gifts, cards, food and drink and much more.

The main shop itself is like an Aladdin's cave, with shelves over owing with extra stock for Christmas. It's full of great gift ideas for any age group. Gift vouchers are also available for the main shop and the restaurant. A high tea or a cream tea voucher makes a lovely gift for somebody special, or a shop gift voucher for that person who you just can't think what to buy.

As well as the main gift shop and restaurant, the Craft Centre is home to the Attic Gallery, featuring bespoke artwork created by talented local artists. You can also discover five other individual craft studios nestled in the two court yards. They include, Earth Design, Mingled Yarn, Malcolm Giladjan's art studio, Caboodle and Sophie Rose Soft Furnishings.

With a large free car park and disabled access to most of the Centre, come and visit Broadwindsor Craft Centre, enjoy a fabulous breakfast, lunch or tea and see the vast array of gifts available in the shops.

Take a look at our website www.broadwindsorcraftcentre.co.uk and follow us on Facebook.

The Windwhistle Inn

THE Windwhistle Inn is fast becoming one of the most popular dining out venues in Chard and the surrounding areas. With its friendly and relaxed approach everyone is made to feel welcome at the Windy. Food is freshly prepared in our kitchen daily and with a Build Your Own Burger section and modern pub classics featuring on the menu, plus an ever changing specials board, the Windwhistle offers something for every person's pallet. Dietary requirements are easily catered for with many vegetarian and gluten free options available as standard. A recent re-decoration of parts of the building has transformed the venue who are well equipped to cater for large parties and well as more intimate occasions. With stunning views of Somerset from the gardens the Windwhistle is the perfect place for weddings or to just sit with a drink and take in the breath-taking scenery.

With Christmas fast approaching bookings are now being taken for both Christmas parties and Christmas Day. The Christmas Party menu will run every day in the run up to Christmas with no need to pre-order if you are a party of less than 10. The ever popular Tribute Act Christmas party nights are also being held on Saturday 3rd December (Michael Buble), Saturday 10th December (Robbie Williams) and Saturday 17th December (Elvis). Early booking for this is recommended. Christmas Day is always special at the Windwhistle but if you would like to join in the Windy' Christmas Day celebrations please book in as soon as possible - the day is well on its way to be full!

New Farm Restaurant

RECENTLY described on Tripadvisor as a "Hidden Gem", New Farm Restaurant is situated just off the A303 in the picturesque village of Over Stratton. Family run, with sisters Sue & Jane, Crispin and sons Ben & Jack they have built up a deserved reputation. All the food is home-made and freshly prepared on the premises using lovely local produce. The Festive season set price menu is no exception and is ideal for Christmas get-togethers. New Farm Restaurant is the place to be, celebrate with fine food and friends, local ales & Ciders and even wine, crackers on the table and carols in the air. Monthly Gourmet Nights are held on the 1st Thursday of every month, Italy for November 3rd and Thai for December 4th and there is a monthly Ladies Lunch on the 2nd Wednesday of the month.

Felt Christmas Tree Ornament Tutorial

www.buddlycrafts.com

Handmade by Josie Day

WHILST I love zooming up and down on my sewing machine, there's something about the shorter winter nights which makes me want to curl up in front of the fire with a hand sewing project and here's the ideal make - Funky little felt ornaments. They're perfect for hanging on your tree or adorning that special present. I've also included a free-standing version, offering up even more decorating possibilities for your dinner table or festive mantel!

Step 1. Trace around the wooden Christmas tree shape onto your green and brown felt and cut out the required number of pieces. You will need two green tree fronts and one brown trunk for each ornament. I used a light green felt which, combined with bright buttons, gives a really modern feel to the project. Should you prefer a more traditional theme, simply use a darker felt and scarlet buttons.

Step 2. Place the mini buttons into a pleasing arrangement and then stitch securely using matching thread.

Step 3. Using green thread stitch around the tree shape, inserting a burlap loop at the top and the brown trunk piece at the bottom.

Step 4. If you are making the free standing version, colour a craft stick with brown felt-tip pen and insert along with your stuffing.

Step 5. Insert the craft stick into a large wooden bead or wooden sewing bobbin.

Step 6. That's it! Now simply give your new handmade ornament pride of place amongst your other decorations!

Marvelous Mince Pies

Ingredients

350g/12oz high quality mincemeat, preferably home-made 200g/7oz plain flour, sifted
40g/1½oz golden caster sugar
75g/2¾oz ground almonds
125g/4½oz unsalted butter, diced
1 large free-range egg, beaten
milk, to glaze

Preparation method

1. Lightly butter a 12-hole pie or patty tin. Tip the mincemeat into a bowl and stir so that the liquid is evenly distributed.
2. Place the flour, sugar, almonds and butter in a food processor and process briefly until resembling breadcrumbs, then slowly add the egg through the feeder tube. (Or rub the butter into the dry ingredients by hand and stir in the egg.)
3. Bring the mixture together with your hands, wrap in clingfilm and chill for an hour or so. Thinly roll out the pastry on a floured surface. Cut out 12 circles with a fluted pastry cutter, large enough to fill the base of the prepared tin. Press gently into each hole, then fill with the mincemeat.
4. Cut out another 12 slightly smaller discs and use to cover the mincemeat. Press the edges together to seal. Make a small slit in the top of each, then brush lightly with milk. Chill for about 30 minutes. Meanwhile, pre heat the oven to 200C/400F/Gas 6.
5. Bake the pies for 20 minutes until golden brown. Remove to a wire rack and serve warm.

Symondsbury Estate Christmas Market

THE Symondsbury Estate Christmas Market is now in its fourth year, and this year takes place on Saturday 3rd December from 10am until 7pm.

Expect to find locally produced food and drink such as chutneys, cheeses, cider and wine on offer, as well as unique, vintage, upcycled and hand crafted items on sale.

This year, we will be introducing a "Secret Present Service": a pop up shop will be in the Old Pottery to enable children to secretly buy affordable presents for their families. Adjacent to the secret shop will be Santa's grotto, where the big guy will be available for children to meet at specific times.

Symondsbury School will be entertaining visitors with carols along with the St Swithuns Brass Band. There will also be some interactive games to keep the little ones entertained. Symondsbury Kitchen will be providing refreshments throughout the day, and there will be outside food and drink outlets to include mulled wine, cider & burgers and a fully licensed bar in the Tithe Barn. A variety of retail and artisan units will also be open in Manor yard for some original Christmas gift ideas.

Le Pisani

RAY Pisani opened his stylish and contemporary restaurant, nestled just off the square in Axminster, almost three years ago. The business, which is named after the acclaimed chef and his business partner and long-time friend Franco Pisani, as they coincidentally share the same surname, has continued to gain a reputation for exquisite food served within the calm and comfortable town centre oasis.

Originally from Malta, Ray followed in his father's footsteps and started cooking at the tender age of six. The family owned a busy restaurant on the island and Ray began to learn his craft along with how to best manage a popular business.

"At that time a bread roll, a bottle of coke and a plate of chips worked out to about seven and half pence in today's money," Ray said.

A keen fisherman, the culinarian honed his skills as a teenager, cooking his catch and learning how to best use the traditional Maltese ingredients and methods.

Ray made the move to the UK in 1984 and started work as a sous chef in Cardiff. After very quickly working his way up to a head chef position, the friendly foodie soon decided it was time to strike out on his own and opened his first restaurant with just £25 to his name. With steely determination and an energy and enthusiasm for his cuisine, he quickly became a huge success, gaining numerous accolades and cooking for a whole host of celebrities, including Tiger Woods, Les Dawson and the cast of Are you being Served?.

After moving to the Devon town in 2013, Ray has fast become something of a local celebrity and loves being close to the sea and the countryside while immersing himself in all aspects of the local community.

The restaurant is open throughout the day and has many regular customers. It also opens at 5pm in the evening, so is an ideal pit stop for a pre-shows meal, with the Guildhall just a stones throw away.

The Mediterranean cuisine is prepared to order with locally sourced ingredients where possible and with a vast array of daily specials, offers something for everyone.

Ray said: "It's genuine food, real food and everything is fresh and cooked to order. Everything originates from the Mediterranean style of cuisine, with the seafood dishes perfected from years of catching fish and experimenting with fresh ingredients."

Lyme Bay Pizza

WELCOME to Lyme Bay Pizza. This month we will be launching our winter menu with all new dishes on there and some of the old favourites. We like to keep our menu fresh and interesting to all our regular customers working with the same ethos of, contemporary ingredients and combinations with big flavours at competitive prices. We have also now perfected our gluten free base so you can now enjoy all of our pizzas even if you can't have gluten.

If you're looking for a venue for party we have looked after many events over the past year from 60th birthdays to student evenings. We can cater for buffets, sit down meal of a bespoke menu for 1, 2 or 3 courses or pre order from the menu. There is a fully licenced bar where we have a range of beer, ciders and ales, wine, spirits and soft drinks.

As the winter draws in and as it gets colder we have invested in some outdoor heating to go with the blankets we already have so you can enjoy the best views of the bay in comfort, as long as it's not raining!

This year fireworks night in Lyme Regis is on Saturday 5th November. We can offer a great venue to watch from as we are situated on the seafront and why not combine that with dinner and drinks. We cater for all ages with our children's menu and allow dogs on our terrace. So book now as space is limited.

We are now taking bookings for Christmas parties. 2 Courses £15.50 3 Courses £19.00 with a glass of prosecco, coffee and mince pies. Choose from any of our starters & desserts and any main course from the menu or Christmas specials.

Make your own Super Santa Cupcake

Preparation time 30 mins Cooking time 25 mins • Makes 12 cupcakes

Ingredients

For the Cupcake

200g Unrefined golden caster sugar
200g Butter (unsalted) softened • 3 eggs
200g Self-raising flour • 1 tsp Vanilla extract

For the Father Christmas Topper

250g each of Sugar paste icing in red, chocolate, white & black • 60ml Water • Apricot Jam

Preparation method

1. Preheat the oven to 180°C (160°C fan, gas mark 4) and line a 12 hole cupcake tin with cases.

2. Cream together the butter and sugar until pale and fluffy, then add the eggs one by one mixing in well in between then add the vanilla extract. Fold in the flour then spoon into the cases.

3. Place in the oven for 20-25 minutes or until golden and a skewer come out clean.

4. To make the father christmas cake topper, use the red sugar paste icing and roll out a ball about 5cm in diameter then flatten the base. Next roll out a sausage about 10cm long and 1.5cm diameter for his arms and finally make a cone shape for his hat and squash the pointed end over to one side.

5. Take some of the white icing and a little of the red and roll them together until the red blends in to give you a pink colour for his head.

6. Next take some black icing and roll 2 small balls for eyes, 2 larger balls for his gloved hands and then roll out a little for a belt.

7. To assemble, use a little water to glue the black belt onto the red body. Next finish the arms by attaching the black hands to the ends of the red 'sausage' shape. Then roll out some of the white icing until is around the end of the arms for his cuffs, using some water to glue. Then cut the arms leaving a diagonal edge. Attach these using a little water, squashing the arms around the body.

8. Next make a small ball using the white icing for a pom pom and attach to the top of the hat.

9. To finish, cut a disc of white icing and cut out a small edged piece for his beard, and 2 smaller pieces for his moustache. Make a small ball using red icing for nose. The attach 2 small balls of white icing and small black icing balls for his eyes.

10. To decorate your cupcake, roll out some chocolate icing and cut into disc, place this on the cake using some warm apricot jam to stick. Then place the jolly father Christmas on top.

Fairground Attraction's Mark Nevin in Bridport

'BEAUTIFUL GUITARS,' is the fourth solo album by Mark Nevin since his earlier rise to prominence as the songwriter behind Fairground Attraction's massive success of the late 1980s. It is his first new collection of material since 2011's critically acclaimed 'Stand Beside Me In The Sun' and sees him honing his distinctively British narrative style into what is perhaps his most accomplished work to date. He'll be performing these songs with his band on Friday 4 November at the Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Café.

The title track is the story of Nevin's love affair with the guitar, "As a teenager every Saturday would be a bus trip into town, where I would stand in front of the windows of the music shops and drink in every detail of the beautiful guitars. I wanted to know all there was to know about them, the Gibsons, Fenders, Rickenbackers, Gretschs, Epiphones, etc. All the different models with their wonderfully named lacquered finishes; Tobacco Sunburst, Cherry Red, Powder Blue, Salmon Pink and so on. Then, there were the amps, the Mesa Boogie, the Marshall Stack, the Fender Twin Reverb, the Hi-Watt, the list goes on. Best of all were the effects pedals, the Small Stone Phaser, Big Muff Fuzz, the Wem Copy Cat Echo, the Cry Baby Wah Wah, the Screaming Tree Treble Booster and the Big Foot Bass Booster. Perhaps the ultimate was the fantastically exotic Electro Harmonix Electric Ladyland Flanger. I wondered what it would sound like if you wired them all together and turned them on at the same time, surely you would be able to fly with that lot?"

Other highlights of the new set include the love child of REM and ELO, 'Love = Love = Love' and the Motown infused '100 Years of Heartache'.

He also revisits some of the most popular songs from his back catalogue, the haunting 'Kiteflyer's Hill', the beautiful 'Broken by a Breeze', a nostalgic ballad that the Everly Brothers would have been proud of, and most notably a complete re-working of his pop classic 'Perfect'.

Nevin is joined by a cast of some of Britain's finest musicians, including his former Fairground bandmates Simon Edwards on rock-steady bass and Roger Beaujolais, whose vibraphone rings joyfully throughout atop the drums of master stickman Richard Marcangelo.

Some songwriters can work the chart shift, working a 9 to 5 hitmaking regime. Others write when the inspiration strikes, and the inspiration has been striking Mark Nevin for the better part of a quarter-century. His resumé runs from the multi-million-selling 'Perfect' to writing with everyone from Morrissey to Ringo Starr. It includes collaborations with Carleen Anderson, Lloyd Cole and the irreplaceable Kirsty MacColl, and covers of his songs by Joe Cocker, David Bowie, even Julio Iglesias.

FAIRGROUND ATTRACTION

Teaming up with Scottish singer Eddi Reader, firstly for demos as a duo and then becoming the four-piece Fairground Attraction, they knew they were onto a winner. "When we played 'Perfect' for the first time, the audience went ballistic." As indeed they did when the single was released in 1987, soaring to No. 1 in the UK and becoming a worldwide phenomenon.

As Nevin says, Fairground Attraction went from 0 to 100 in no time. Another top ten single, 'Find My Love,' flowed from Nevin's pen, and they went on to a huge debut album, 'The First Of A Million Kisses,' which stayed on the chart for nearly a year. BRIT Awards followed for both Best Single and Best Album, in the year of the most famous ceremony in the event's history (Mick Fleetwood and Sam Fox, say no more).

Inevitably, the group crashed and burned, but Nevin moved swiftly to pastures new. "I was doing so many things then, working with Kirsty, with Morrissey, Carleen Anderson, then the Sweetmouth album with Brian Kennedy, it was like I was working non-stop."

Nevin went on to write extensively with Morrissey, on the 'Kill Uncle' and 'Your Arsenal' albums and four consecutive top 40 singles ('Our Frank,' 'Sing Your Life,' 'Pregnant For The Last Time' and 'Sing Your Life'). David Bowie covered the duo's 'I Know It's Gonna Happen Someday,' then Mark and Kirsty MacColl charted the breakups of their respective marriages and turned it into something beautiful, on her 'Titanic Days' album. Nevin had his own Beattie moment, when Sir George Martin conducted the orchestra on the song Mark wrote with Ringo Starr, 'I'm Yours'.

Mark Nevin performs at Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Cafe on Friday, November 4th at 8pm. Tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

A reason to be cheerful

STARTING out as the band behind Ian Dury, The Blockheads are a legendary outfit that has grown in stature from the early days of the Stiff tour in 1977, right up to the present day.

Rarely off the road since Dury's demise in 2000 they have a legion of fans of all ages and are returning to Dorchester Corn Exchange on 28 October following their sell-out summer 2015 show.

Along with some new material you can expect to hear "Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick", "Wake Up And Make Love With Me", "Reasons

To Be Cheerful (Part 3)", "What A Waste", "Clever Trevor", "Sweet Gene Vincent" and many more from the illustrious back catalogue.

The Blockheads are now fronted by Derek 'The Draw' Hussey, and Chaz Jankel, Norman Watt-Roy, John Turnbull and Mick Gallagher still remain from the original band. The current line-up is augmented by John Roberts on drums and a rolling line up of stellar saxophonists.

Support comes from Weymouth The Surfin' Birds, one of the hottest and most unique rock'n'roll bands on the circuit. Their dedication, verve and sheer, sweat-soaked energy is grabbing the attention of audiences and listeners, to lead them kicking, screaming and jiving, onto the skyrocket trajectory that it is their destiny to pursue.

The Blockheads, with support from the Surfin' Birds, play at Dorchester Corn Exchange, on Friday, October 28th at 8pm.

Tickets are £20, or £18 for Dorchester Arts Members or concessions. For booking visit www.dorchester-arts.org.uk, call 01305 266926, or visit the box offices at Dorchester Corn Exchange or Dorchester TIC.

B Sharp premieres their largest concert of original music at Poole Lighthouse

LED BY Lyme Regis based music charity B Sharp, a number of Dorset schools from Bournemouth to Lyme Regis are in full swing rehearsing this month for an ambitious concert premiere of ONE – a shared humanity at Lighthouse, Poole Centre for the Arts on Friday 11th November.

As part of their 2016 programme, this exciting concert continues B Sharp's efforts to create open access quality music and singing experiences that have been inspiring children and young people for nearly a decade. ONE is a collection of vocal work composed by John K Miles in response to creative workshops facilitated by B Sharp in schools and the community, along the Jurassic Coast. This powerful and thought-provoking concert of original music will feature new choirs from secondary and primary schools in the region, many of whom have no formal singing experience. A select group of 200 young singers come from: Beaminster School, St Michael's Primary School, and The Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis, Mrs Ethelston's Primary in Uplyme, St Mary's Primary School in Bridport and St Peter's Comprehensive, and Winton & Glenmoor in Bournemouth.

Commissioned by B Sharp and Soundstorm, this bespoke collection of music has woven together newly written material alongside cherry picked re-imaginings of legacy compositions, to paint a musical picture of our shared humanity.

The piece has been scored for an open access collective of young singers, emerging leaders and world-class professional musicians. It seeks to engage young people in singing that is both enjoyable and challenging and to cultivate a sense of connection and ownership for all participants.

Ms Saunders, teacher at Mrs Ethelston's Primary school is delighted with how the project has already benefitted her pupils. 'This project is an opportunity for children to find new skills and new areas of confidence. Children who previously shied away have taken on solo singing opportunities and it has been truly overwhelming to watch.'

This project is also benefiting B Sharp's young music leaders and mentors by giving them the opportunity to shadow a professional composer. As Harvey Causley explains: 'For me, this project is all about sharing music with everyone. As an assistant music leader for B Sharp, I have had the pleasure of travelling to different schools in the area and learning new music written by John K Miles. It is a gift to be a part of this project and one that I can't wait to see performed to the public.'

The best part is seeing, and hearing the confidence of the children grow. Seeing everyone enjoy themselves during rehearsals is what makes projects like this so special.'

Fran Williams, CEO said: 'B Sharp is excited to be strengthening a culture of singing, building pathways and introducing young people to opportunities they might not have had before. Resources for this are scarce and we are grateful to our sponsors Youth Music, Soundstorm (Bournemouth & Poole Music Education Hub), Dorset Music Education Hub and the Lighthouse, Poole Centre for the Arts. With John K Miles at the helm we anticipate something special at The Lighthouse Poole. I encourage everyone to get their tickets early to avoid disappointment.'

Buy your ticket directly from the Lighthouse, Poole: www.lighthousepoole.co.uk, 01202 280000

All proceeds made through ticket sales will go towards the cost of the production, and any additional donations will be used to further the good work at B Sharp.

B Sharp are providing coaches from Lyme Regis (Woodroffe School bus bay, 5.00 pm) and Bridport (St Mary's School, 5.30 pm) for parents families, friends. Return journey will be £8. Book your place on the coach as soon as possible through your local school office (see list above). Places are not confirmed until payment is received. However, B Sharp will never exclude anyone in the case of hardship and concessions are available @ £5. Family tickets are £20 for a family of 4. Ask at the school. Members of the public should book through B Sharp at bsharp@bsharp.uk.com

WOW stage smash-hit musical Legally Blonde in Weymouth

Talented young performers from Weymouth's WOW Youth Musical Theatre are gearing up for their November show. Their thrilling production of Legally Blonde is being staged at Weymouth Pavilion from November 16th to 19th 2016.

WOW Chairman, Alan McKechnan said, "This is another fabulously funny, feel-good show that is bound to lift your spirits with its hilarious comedy and sparkling musical numbers. If you've seen WOW before you'll know what to expect, if it's your first time then prepare to be astonished by a production of the highest quality!"

The musical is based on the 2001 movie, starring Reese Witherspoon. It tells the story of fashion graduate, Elle Woods, who wins a place at Harvard Law School to try to get her ex-boyfriend Warner back after he dumped her. The 2010 West End production, starring Sheridan Smith as Elle, won three Olivier awards including the Best New Musical Award.

Don't miss this upbeat and fun night out! Book your tickets now from the Pavilion box office (Tel: 01305 783225) or online at weymouthpavilion.com

Britain's Got Talent finalist to headline Comedy Cafe

COMEDY impressionist and Britain's Got Talent (BGT) finalist Danny Posthill headlines next week's comedy cafe night at the Bridport Arts Centre.

Seen by millions in the BGT 2015 final, Danny Posthill has since performed all over the world working alongside some of the biggest names in comedy after he stunned the BGT judges with his hilarious portrayals of everyone from fellow comics Billy Connolly and Jimmy Carr to famous faces such as David Beckham and Gary Barlow.

Danny is now carving a career for himself on the alternative comedy circuit and will be coming to Bridport for the first time next week to headline the new look Bridport Comedy Cafe.

Joining Danny will be one of the westcountry's finest new female comics, Sandi Smith, Edinburgh Fringe Festival regular Simon Caine and resident local comic Niki McCretton.

Since starting comedy later in life Sandi has established herself as one of best new acts in the south west and gives a fresh new viewpoint on parenting and getting older. Simon Caine is a comedian, podcaster and writer based in London who has just completed his first UK tour of his last Edinburgh Show 'Buddhism and Cats'.

As ever, Bridport comedian Tom Glover will MC the show, chatting with the crowd and road testing his latest material.

"The last comedy cafe was the first show in the new venue and there was standing room only so please book your tickets in advance to guarantee a space, said Tom.

"We have a great line up this month with a real mixed bill that I think offers something for everyone and to get Danny down to headline is real coo for such a little club. He was being voted for by millions of people on prime time Saturday night TV this time last year so to have him at our club should be great."

The next Comedy Cafe night will be on Wednesday, November 2nd at 8pm. Tickets are £8 and available online or from the arts centre box office as usual on 01308 424204.

Cricket-themed play makes a special visit to Dorchester Corn Exchange

CRICKET fans and theatregoers will have a special opportunity to see a new play about former England and Northamptonshire batsman Colin Milburn when it comes to Dorchester Corn Exchange on 30 October as part of a nationwide tour.

Twice featured on Test Match Special this summer, When the Eye Has Gone is making a detour to Dorset's county town as part of a tour that will otherwise only visit the eighteen First Class County Club grounds including Lords, The Oval and Headingley.

With the mental wellbeing of sportspeople so much in the news, the play could scarcely be more topical. Colin Milburn was a man with colossal talent and build, weighing 18-stone at his batting peak. In 1966 he forced his way into the England side for the first of his nine Tests, an almost unimaginable scenario in the present era of intense physiology and fitness monitoring.

He struck a blistering 94 in his First Test at Old Trafford followed by a glorious hundred at Lords and all too briefly he became a household name. In May 1969, he lost his left eye in a car crash, an injury that effectively ended his career and life prospects.

When The Eye Has Gone comes to Dorchester Corn Exchange, on Sunday, October 30th at 8pm. Tickets are £12, £10 for Dorchester Arts Members or concessions, or £5 for Live for 5 Members (ages 14-25 - see website for details). For booking visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk, call 01305 266926, or visit the box offices at Dorchester Corn Exchange or Dorchester TIC.

'Dare Devil Rides To Jarama' to premiere at Bridport Arts Centre

A NEW play based on the experiences of The International Brigades during The Spanish civil War; the powerful political and economic forces engulfing 1930s Europe and the reasons why so many ordinary people made the extraordinary choice to leave family and livelihoods and fight in a brutal war so far from home.

Dare Devil Rides To Jarama by Neil Gore, will premiere at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, November 5th.

Compelling and humorous, Dare Devil Rides To Jarama is centred on the contrasting lives of International Brigaders Clem Beckett and Christopher Caudwell. Beckett, a Lancashire blacksmith and famous star of the speedway track, and Caudwell, a renowned writer, poet and philosopher, were killed together at Jarama in February 1937, having become friends as members of the British Battalion's machine-gun company.

Through their stories, the play will shed light on the political and social world of the 1930s and all that inspired and confronted the Brigaders on their journeys to Spain.

Combining Townsend Productions' trademark a cast of three playing multiple roles, grand theatrical style and wit with Spanish and political 1930's songs arranged by acclaimed folk musician John Kirkpatrick and, the production aims to bring the full story of the compelling dispute to life in a powerful and thought-provoking new play.

Tickets for Dare Devil Rides To Jarama are priced at £12 (£10 Concs) and can be purchased at the Box Office on 01308 424204 or online at the website www.bridport-arts.com

5 TIPS FOR ADDING VALUE

By Julia Gray, Press Association

1. If you've outgrown your home and you can make it bigger by building an extension or converting the loft, cellar or garage, doing the work is often more economical than moving and gives you an opportunity to create space tailored to your needs. However, you need to be careful not to enlarge your home in the wrong way. You'll add most value if everything's in proportion - for example, the right number of bedrooms to bathrooms (aim for at least one bathroom to three bedrooms) and enough living space for the number of bedrooms.

▲ PA Photo/thinkstockphotos.

2. Lofts are often straightforward to convert, especially if the work can be done under your home's permitted development rights, meaning that planning permission isn't required. Loft conversions usually add most value when turned into a suite with a main bedroom, bathroom or shower room and even, if there's enough space, a walk-in wardrobe or dressing room. If planning laws allow, maximising the space by adding a full-width dormer window and altering the side roof so it goes from sloped to 'straight' (when viewed from the front or back) makes for a larger and more valuable loft conversion.

3. These days, smaller, separate rooms are out and larger, open-plan rooms are in - as far as most of us are concerned. However, totally open-plan space isn't necessarily the best way to add value, or live day to day, especially if you have children. Open-plan kitchen-diners/family rooms are now extremely popular, but also having a separate, more formal sitting room works well for many families. Some families prefer to have a separate playroom or den for the kids, so the mess is self-contained.

4. One of the best ways to create an open-plan kitchen-diner/family room is to add a ground-floor extension (which can also often be done under your home's permitted development rights) to enlarge the existing kitchen and any rooms you're combining it with, such as a separate dining room. Add a wall of bi-fold doors leading out to the garden to give a wonderful feeling of inside-outside space and you have a valuable addition to your home.

5. If enlarging the kitchen isn't an option, modernising a dated kitchen is one of the best things you can do. Kitchens and bathrooms are the rooms that most sell homes because replacing them is expensive and disruptive, and while you don't have to spend a fortune to get a good look, any money spent is usually a good investment in these key rooms.

PRODUCT OF THE WEEK

Light up DIY projects in these dark evenings with the AE0183 Rechargeable LED Work Light (£19.99, Screwfix). This sturdy metal light is cordless (with a three-hour battery life), so you can carry it from job to job without having to find somewhere to plug it in. The built-in 10W LED bulb gives off masses of light, but it doesn't make the casing or glass hot - non-LED work lights get extremely hot and so can be dangerous. The AE0183 has a fully adjustable head and a comfy-grip handle, and comes with two chargers - one for a socket and one for a car cigarette lighter - so there's no excuse for not keeping it charged.

HOW-TO TIP

Do you have unsightly radiator-pipe holes in varnished or stained floorboards? This is a common problem if the radiators have been moved, leaving the old holes. Carefully lifting the boards with holes in and fixing a piece of wood underneath will enable you to fill the holes easily. If you can't get the boards up and there's nothing to fill on to, gradually build up wood filler around the edge of each hole and when that's set hard, fill the middle of the hole. Use a flexible wood filler that's the same as, or a similar colour to, the floorboards, or stain the filler the same colour for a good finish.

Upscale new Ford Kuga Vignale and Ford Edge Vignale meet growing demand for more luxurious SUVs

THE new Ford Kuga Vignale and Ford Edge Vignale are the first sport utility vehicles (SUVs) introduced as part of the Ford Vignale upscale product and ownership experience – and meet growing consumer demand for more luxurious SUV models.

Both the Ford Kuga Vignale mid-size SUV and Ford Edge large SUV deliver exclusive specification and high-quality materials including tuxedo-stitched Windsor leather interiors, unique Vignale colours, and detailing including the signature Ford Vignale hexagonal grille design.

Cutting-edge technologies include Ford's Adaptive Front Lighting System that adjusts the headlight beam angle and intensity to match the driving environment, and Ford's SYNC 3 communication and entertainment system that delivers faster performance and an 8-inch touch screen that enables pinch and swipe gestures.

Powerful, fuel-efficient and refined powertrains include Ford's 210PS bi-turbo TDCi diesel for the Ford Edge Vignale, and 182PS 1.5-litre EcoBoost petrol engine for the Ford Kuga Vignale. Ford Intelligent All Wheel Drive (AWD) is delivered as standard for the Ford Edge Vignale and is offered for the Ford Kuga Vignale, delivering a seamless transition of torque between all four wheels to provide a more secure footing on the road. Refinement is further enhanced for the Ford Edge Vignale with Ford Active Noise Control, which directs opposing sound waves through the audio system to cancel out engine noise and improve cabin ambience.

"Our Ford Vignale range speaks directly to the growing trend for upmarket SUVs and represents the very best of Ford with luxurious design, materials and craftsmanship," said Roelant de Waard, vice president, Marketing, Sales & Service, Ford of Europe. "We see great potential to extend the top end of our Ford product range and offer a special experience that meets the growing expectations of our customers."

The percentage of SUVs sold in the UK in 2015 rose over 25 per cent to 642,194 compared with 2014 sales. Over 80 per cent of the 32,944 Kugas sold in 2015 were high-specification Titanium models, indicating high demand for luxury variants in the SUV segment.

Revision required, Seasiders fail Uni test

Beaminster and Pymore both plunder 10 - First win for Rovers - back to back defeats for Uplyme

EXETER UNIVERSITY RES 4 LYME REGIS 0

Devon & Exeter Division One
LYME Regis were punished for an abject low-key performance which produced little in way of goal scoring opportunities and can have no complaints having been well beaten by the Exeter University second-string.

Confusion at the home ground saw the match switched at the last minute to adjacent Topsham Town Ground which was far from it's best with no game scheduled to be played there.

Undeterred, both teams agreed to continue and play the match - although on reflection Lyme will no doubt regret their decision!

The first goal came in the 16th minute when the ball was squared through the six-yard box and Matt Jacka tucked it away.

The pattern of the game saw the Students continue to play the neater, quicker passing game whilst Lyme, who changed their formation three times, were guilty of too many passes that were played into aimless avenues or went astray.

They were still in the game at 1-0 but suffered a killer blow on the stroke of half time when Dom Rowe gave the ball away and Matt Barker slotted past keeper Lee Cleal.

The Seasiders had their best period in the early stages of the second half but again failed to create a meaningful opening.

The closest they came was when Rob Fellingham's corner kick was flicked on by Matt Laing but Sam Day's volley flew over the crossbar, while Mark Bailey and Sam Pollard-Jones both had late half chances.

Lyme manager Robin Townsend rang the changes with the introduction of Dan Baggs and Adam Caddy to try a spruce up a toothless looking front line.

But the result was sealed when Barker pounced on Gary Knight's scuffed clearance and curled home an inch-perfect shot that nestled high in the top corner (see photo, right).

The Students added a fourth through Jacka in the 75th minute to compound the visitors' misery.

Whilst the result is Lyme's first league defeat of the season, Manager Townsend was frustrated at having no match next Saturday and was keen to put things right immediately: "I'd like to play again tomorrow, we were awful. I'm expecting to see a good turnout of players at training on Saturday night, and had told all of today's squad that they need to be there. "They (University) were sharper than us, we looked sluggish and lacked ideas."

Lyme Regis: Lee Cleal, Sam Day, Matt Laing, Dom Rowe, Gary Knight (capt), Darren Lock, Rob Fellingham (Dan Baggs 70), Sam Pollard-Jones, Chris Herbst (Kieren Daniels 39), Mark Bailey, Rhys Hayter (Adam Caddy 62).

Devon & Exeter League D6
HAVING lost their opening two matches of the season, Lyme Regis Reserves' remarkable turnaround in form continued on Saturday as they racked up their sixth straight win.

Dec Ellis fired Lyme ahead early on and then struck the bar with a towering header before skipper Alex Rowe, in MoM form, added the second to give Lyme a firm platform to build from.

Ellis made it 3-0 before half time with the pick of the goals - a stunning 25-yarder that gave the home keeper no chance.

The hosts had a chance to cut the arrears before the break, but were foiled by a brave stop by keeper Rob Thom and a melee in the penalty area.

The dependable Matt Thomas was rewarded for another tireless performance in the midfield engine run when he made it 4-0 on the hour mark.

The scoring was completed when Ryan Fifer slotted home a late penalty.

CORONATION CUP QF

NETHERBURY 0 BEAMINSTER 10

NETHERBURY were comprehensively beaten in Saturday's Coronation Cup local derby match by a very strong Beaminster.

The visitors started well and were ahead inside 12 minutes. Beaminster continue to have the majority of the ball, but Netherbury held their own, until the main talking point of the first half.

In the 25th minute Beaminster were awarded what the hosts felt was a contentious penalty by referee Bob Brunt, who deemed George Green to have fouled striker Rich Hebditch in the box.

This was converted for 2-0 and the nature of the goal affected the Ambers. Ryan Gay hit the bar soon after with a header and they conceded twice more before half time.

Despite the game being played in the right way, referee Bunt dished out several yellow cards, including two for Josh James who was sent off with 10 minutes to go.

Netherbury Joint Manager Paul Cuff said: "We always knew today would be tough, as Beaminster have a strong set of players that include several that have played at a higher level. But our lads showed plenty of effort and team spirit". Cuff selected Steve Combes, Ash Hall and Arthur Gay as his star men.

Hebditch (3), Murray Legg (2), Shane Evans (2), Russell Legg, Ryan Gay and Roger Cummings netted for the Rainbows whose manager Gordy Child said: "When the game goes like that standards drop as everyone wants to get in on the act, but overall we played well." Childs praised the performances of Tom Coggins and Robin Jones.

SOUTH PETHERTON RES 2 PYMORE 11

SOUTH Petherton Reserves' goals against column reached the dizzy heights of 50 in just three matches after shipping their third double figure score of the season.

But Pymore refused to gorge in the goal glut: "We were determined to play proper football and treat it as a practice match for the harder games to come," said defender Matt Tither.

Pymore had just 11 players themselves and they were reduced to 10 for 70 minutes when Dan Coles was forced off with a head injury.

No stopping that!

The west Dorset side lead 9-1 at half-time before Pethy switched keepers to good affect in the second half.

Tim Hussey netted a double hat-trick for Pymore with Shane Webb (2), Andy McCleary (2) and Liam Proctor scoring the others.

CHARMOUTH 5 DRIMPTON RESERVES 1

A BRIN Seward hat-trick at Barrs Lane on Saturday helped Charmouth avoid a potential banana-skin and set up a quarter-final at Farway United.

Seward bagged the first two inside the opening 25 minutes; the second after a neat one-two with Dan Rumsby. The leads was extended to 3-0 when Seward was felled in the box by the visiting keeper and Dan Rendell made no mistake from the penalty spot.

It was one-way traffic in the second half too. MoM Seward completed his hat-trick and Paul Miners made it 5-0 from 18 yards before some sloppy defending gifted the Simon Knight a late consolation.

DIVISION THREE

ILMINSTER A 1 LYME REGIS ROVERS 5
AFTER a series of near misses, and a season already dripping in the goals, Lyme Regis Rovers earned new manager Terry White a first win of the season and jump of two places up the Division Three table.

Lyme took the lead in the fifth minute when Pete Peacock lobbed the ball over the home keeper.

And it was Peacock who made it 2-0 ten minute later with a crisp volley. He appeared to have scored again soon after with a header that looked to have bounced down over the line via the underside of the bar but the referee said 'no goal'.

But the goal of the game came on the half-hour when right back Tom Wood latched on to a ball that had only been half cleared and smacked a rising drive that tore into the net from 25 yards out.

MoM Peacock completed his 15th hat-trick for the Seasiders when he calmly curled the ball beyond the flailing keeper five minutes after the turnaround and, after Callum Brown had pulled one back, went on to score a fourth in the 80th minute.

White was understandably pleased with his side, he told View Sport: "We were superb, it was great to see the lads chalk up a win. Our communication was good and we looked like a well-balanced team."

MISTERTON RES 5 UPLYPE RESERVES 1

UPLYPE Reserves slipped to their second consecutive defeat as their promotion aspirations received a blow at Unity Lane.

After an even opening quarter Uplyme were forced into a reshuffle when they lost midfielder Steve Batey with concussion.

And soon after they fell behind when a needless foul in the area was punished and Missy took the lead from the penalty spot.

A goalkeeping mix-up handed the hosts their second early in the second half and the writing was on the wall for the Swallows.

A third goal followed soon after and there was no way back. MoM Jonnie Harris did cut the arrears with a clever finish from the tightest of angles and Frank Harris was felled for what the visitors felt was a clear-cut penalty.

It wasn't given, and another goal-keeping error handed Misterton a fourth before James Whetlor headed a cross into his own net.

Stuart Weston scored a hat-trick and Callum Preston twice for Misterton.

Moses and Blair still to be beaten

TWO Budmouth teams head the Weymouth & District Table Tennis League Division One after the latest round of games.

Budmouth A top the table after their 30-6 win over newly promoted Preston B with Moses Lewis continuing his 100 per cent start to the season in leading Brad Burroughs and Tom Cherry to a near perfect win.

Budmouth B sit just a point behind their counterparts after their 23-14 victory over Dorchester's YMCA which saw Jamie Blair (9) record three 3-0 wins to match Moses of nine games unbeaten to date. Will Jolliffe (6) and Ethan Gear (5) also scored well.

Colliton X are in third following their 24-14 win over Budmouth C on Wednesday evening. Raj Lehal secured the full nine points for Colliton and was ably supported by Tony Loveridge (8) and Andy Crouch (7).

Shipton Gorge's B and C teams met in a top of the table clash in Division Two and it was the B team that came out on top with a 25-15 victory. Both Derek Wheeler and Graham Albertella secured maximums with Brian Cammell scoring seven for the victors. The C team's top scorer was Tom Baldry (6) and he also restored some pride when joining with Dave Poole for a 3-0 doubles win.

Pilgrims A are third place after a convincing 26-9 win over Colliton C. Tim Scott, who is also unbeaten this season, and Paul Beeston both hit the maximum nine points for Pilgrims and John Hunnisett five.

Preston C are still looking for their first win of the season after losing 11-25 to fourth placed Springfield C. Greg Clarke top scored for Preston with six points but Steve Rook and Pete Anderson scored nine points apiece for Springfield.

Springfield D are top of Division Three after their 23-14 victory over Wyke C; the highlight being the five set doubles, which Springfield took from 2-1 down.

Pilgrims B moved to second in the division after their 25-14 win over Budmouth E. The girls from Budmouth found it tough against the wily Pilgrims team but young Jaimee Browne (3) picked up another win in beating Richard Ellerby (6) 3-0.

Budmouth D proved to be too strong for Preston D, unning out convincing 28-8 winners. Budmouth's Ben Howe (9) showed he had an old head on young shoulders in beating the experienced Lynda Clegg (3).

Convincing win for Hawks

West Dorset 3 Bridgwater A 0

WEST Dorset started well against lowly Bridgwater A with good movement off the ball enabling them to control the game.

Bertie Newman, running hard on the left, was giving the visiting defence a lot to do, but it was Alex Davies who managed to scramble the first goal in.

Hawks continued to push hard, with Rob Clarke, playing at right back, doing a huge amount of work supporting the midfield and keeping the ball in the oppositions half.

At one point centre back Giles Maltby found himself with the ball in the D, but it was Newman whose hard work paid off and scored the second goal.

Bridgwater came back strongly in the second half, but some fanatic defensive work from Giles Maltby, Clarke, Richard Puzey and Charlie Davies meant that keeper Tom Lowe had very little to do.

Russell Coombes, doing selfless work up front, laid on a number of opportunities to increase the lead before Rick Steele manage to convert one with a well struck shot that the keeper fumbled.

Captain Steele said: "This was a very enjoyable game with all the West Dorset players having an important part to play in gaining a convincing win."

Next week they visit Cornwall with a game against Camborne School of Mining.

West Dorset A resume their season next week following a two week lay-off when they entertain Chard B.

A view on the Bees

Things on the up for Bees

Longwell Green 0 Bridport 3

Toolstation Premier Division; att; 89

BRIDPORT recorded their third consecutive victory on Saturday when beating Longwell Green Sports, and in doing so recorded their first clean sheet of the campaign.

The Bees travelled to Bristol boosted by wins over Hallen and Odd Down and once again were convincing winners as they leapfrogged their hosts in the Toolstation Western League Premier Division.

Manager Adam Fricker stayed with the same starting 11, and in a scrappy first half without showing the potency of the week before, they were two goals to the good and under no real pressure.

They took the lead after 15 minutes when a crossfield ball from Andy Martin found Ed Butcher who volleyed it across the box to Mark Salter who's sliding effort brought a great save from the keeper but Braeden Symes was on hand to fire home the rebound from close range.

Soon after Dan Peach was substituted with a thigh problem and replaced by Matt Condliffe, but it didn't stop the Bees increasing their advantage.

Salter created some space for himself on the angle of the penalty area before producing an exquisite shot into the top corner.

Bridport stepped up the pace after the break and created a number of chances that could have increased their total.

Butcher was narrowly wide with a cracking 35-yard shot before the keeper just managed to nick the ball off substitute Elliot Mann, who replaced another thigh victim Salter, before he could reach it. Butcher then shot just wide as he slid in on a great pass from Condliffe.

They finally added a third when Butcher crossed and Mann found space to score from eight yards.

Talking to View Sport Fricker said: "They didn't really cause us any problems in the first half but we needed to step it up after the break and play a bit more at our pace which we did."

"It was good to finally get a clean sheet as in the last couple of victories we have conceded a couple of goals, so hopefully we have managed to shore things up a bit, and started to take our chances."

"All-in-all there are plenty of positives to take from the game and we go into a tough match at home to Melksham on Saturday with plenty of confidence.

"Although we are unable to compete with the likes of Bristol Manor Farm and Buckland financially, we have shown that we are able to compete with them on the pitch, and that's what we will be looking to do against Melksham."

On their recent run of victories the former ChardTown boss said: "The performances have been there but it's just turning them into results."

"We always knew it was going to happen and Paddy (Behan, assistant manager) said it would take a couple of months to get it together, and at the moment that's being proved, but we're not getting carried away."

"However, if we can get the right result on Saturday, our confidence will be really high."

Both Salter and Peach are expected to recover from slight thigh strains for Saturday's clash and Gary Bulman, Leigh Bailey and Louis Rutter are all expected to be available.

Hammers just too good

Bridport Reserves 1 Hamworthy Rec 3
Dorset Premier League

BEES' manager Shaun Annetts had no qualms about the result which saw the experienced Rec team score two late goals to take all three points.

Bridport welcomed back captain Dan Peach from holiday, while top scorer Josh Hunter was only named as substitute as he had not fully recovered from a virus, something that affected several reserve and third team players.

Bridport got off to the worst possible start conceding a goal in the opening 30 seconds.

This gave Hamworthy impetus and for the next 15 minutes they held sway, but some resolute defending from the front to back saw the Bees ride out the storm.

A change at half-time saw Henry Davy replace the injured Ashley Walkey and it was unfortunate his first touch was to miss an opportunity to equalise.

Although Hamworthy were edging the game, the young Bees were holding their own and equalised midway through the half when good work down the right from Callum Middleton, Davy and Riley Weedon gave Simon Gale the opportunity to fire home into the bottom corner.

However, as Bridport began to tire and Hamworthy's experience and physical fitness began to tell, and the visitors scored two goals to run out 3-1 winners.

Annetts told View Sport: "After the initial 15 minutes we grew in confidence and after we equalised I genuinely thought we would get a draw, but we began to tire and naivety in our defensive shape allowed them to snatch two goals, which flattered them a bit."

"I have no complaints. Without a shadow of doubt Hamworthy are a better team than us at the moment. Their experience and physical strength was enough to beat us."

"We are still on the outlook for defenders, there is a shortage in the club, and we need to strengthen in that area, we have had to play too many youngsters in positions they are not used to."

"However, if these lads stay together and continue to improve they will be a force to be reckoned with."

Bees run Chickens to ground

Bridport A 6 Chickerell A 0
Dorset League Division Four

BRIDPORT A knew that visit from unbeaten Chickerell A would be their toughest challenge of the season to date.

From the first whistle the home side went at the visitors and played them off the park.

Despite Chickerell's attempt to boss midfielder Jed Holt matched them while MoM Callan Strelley starred in his new central role producing a series of passes which provided four assists.

Sol Davis gave them the lead after ten minutes before Jaydon Scadding quickly headed a second and Brandon Scadding made it 3-0 just before half hour.

The visitors were rocking and a fourth goal came a minute later with Ali Kamara netting from a corner.

The second half was much the same with Bridport dominating. Kamara scored twice to complete his hat trick.

Bridport now face the only other unbeaten team Swanage RBL away next week.

No joke
for JestersBridport Evolution 80
Exmouth Jesters 54

Exeter & District Div 2

BRIDPORT expected a tough game when they hosted joint top of the division Exmouth Jesters, especially as they were missing key players Park, Reid and Hughes.

But that didn't stop them starting positively and playing to their strengths in the first quarter.

Both teams were evenly matched trading good open shots and ending the 1st quarter 18-17 to Evolution.

Bridport found their rhythm in the opening minutes of the 2nd quarter and played some stand out performances on offence with great ball movement creating open looks at the ring.

But defence was the key as Trivett and Steel played crucial parts in keeping the Jesters out of the paint and rebounding every opportunity. The half with Evolution in front at 38-32.

Knowing that Exmouth's intentions were going to be tough to defend in the 3rd quarter, Bridport strategically changed their defence by getting Steel to keep the Jester's big man out of the game, forcing the away side to take lower percentage shots from outside the arc. This worked perfectly for Bridport going into the final quarter 58-48 ahead.

Evolution simply stole the show in the final minutes of the game as Jeff Robertshaw and MVP Sorrell saw off the exhausted Exmouth team to take the win 80-54.

Evolution player Jeff Robertshaw said: "It is such a great feeling to be in control of a game like this from the first whistle to the last, especially when it's against a good side like Exmouth who are currently top of Division 2."

Players scores; Sorrell 39, J Robertshaw 22, E Robertshaw 8, T White 5, Steel 4, Trivett 2, Gray. Bridport's next home fixture is against EXETER UNIVERSITY II on Monday, November 14th at the Beaminster community sports hall.

Gig Racing

Record breaking season for Lyme

LYME Regis Gig Club held their AGM last week and were able to look back on a hugely successful year in which new records were set in what was their best season to date.

The Club's active membership now stands at 166 from Lyme and the surrounding area, making it one of the largest clubs, in terms of members taking part in sport, in West Dorset.

Member age ranges from nine to 80. The club has a growing number of youth rowers, many of these took part in the Jurassic Coast Junior Races last Saturday where 50 young rowers competed.

In veteran racing (over 40) the club is now one of the top few in the country in terms of results, making the top 10 in three of the four categories in the World Championships.

The club has a strong social side, with plenty of off-water activities and training plus ample post row coffees by the Cobb, evening drinks in the local pubs and a monthly social get together.

There are lots of club members who prefer to row for the sheer pleasure of some healthy exercise in Lyme Bay in these beautifully crafted traditional wooden boats.

The club's origins stem from a desire for long distance Ocean rowing, and in 2016 a division started up focusing on just this. They have taken part in several long distance races and plan many more for 2017.

In fact the club has five Atlantic Ocean crossings under the belts of its membership.

During the racing season the club attended more regattas than ever before and has sent crews to 25 separate regattas.

Furthermore, club members will fly off to Bermuda this month to represent Lyme in the first ever gig races on the other side of the Atlantic.

There has been huge success in the regattas. The men's A crew have lead the way with wins in Weymouth, Ilfracombe, Bridport and Lyme and came in 14th out of 160 crews in the World Championships on the Isles of Scilly.

Not be outdone the men's vets crew (over 40s) won in Weymouth, Bridport, Lyme, Ilfracombe and Teignmouth plus a fine 2nd in the highly ranked Rame regatta and a brilliant 4th in the World Championships.

There were further wins also for the men's C crew in Dartmouth and the men's supervets in Lyme.

Although fewer victories for the ladies, they have progressed up through the ranks with great strides.

The ladies supervets tasted victory in Ilfracombe while the ladies A made the top 50 for the first time in the World Championships.

All the ladies crews contributed to Lyme's first ever club trophy in a regatta, winning the overall award in their home regatta in August.

During 2016 the club added two new boats to the fleet. A plastic gig named Prospero to allow access for even more rowers and a new fibre glass skiff named Storm Force.

The club also invested in six new Concept 2 rowing machines to provide training opportunities for when rowing is cancelled due to poor weather.

Another great landmark comes up in the New Year as Club celebrate its 10th anniversary.

Looking forward to the 2017 season, the club has voted in new men's captain Ton Short with ladies captain Anna Doxey being re-elected.

The months of winter training now start in preparation for the first race in March.

The club has various types of off-water training taking place and rowing continues on weekends throughout the winter, weather permitting.

The club is keen to welcome new members of all ages and abilities, so if you fancy some leisurely social rowing or want to get fitter and compete at the top level of this ever growing and highly competitive sport just get in touch.

Before you sign-up as a fully-fledged member you can give gig rowing a go in a taster session or two to see if you'll like it. Go to www.lymerigclub.com for details.

Bonfield breaks 40-point barrier

THERE were 57 entrants in the Men's sections October Stableford on Sunday. Conditions were good which led to some good scores particularly in the lower divisions.

However, only one man managed to achieve the magic 40 points and that was Howard Bonfield in Division Two. Terry Kearley won Division Three after count-back with 38 points and Mike Savage triumphed in Division One scoring 36.

Results

Division One: 1st Mike Savage (8) 36 points, 2nd (acb) Barry O'Mahoney (10) 35, 3rd Marc Harwood (12) 35.

Division Two: 1st Howard Bonfield (16) 40, 2nd (acb) Mike Vincent 38, 3rd Doug Miners (13) 38.

Division Three: 1st Terry Kearley (22) 38, 2nd Brian Savery (19) 37, 3rd (acb) Mannie Wellman (20) 35.

The Midweek Medal was won by Peter Marshall 80-8=72. Runner-up was David Corp 92-16=76.

Veteran's Section

THE Thursday event was the annual Ancient v Modern Matchplay and 32 teams took part.

The age division is supposed to be 70 but the 'Oldies' usually have to lend some players to the 'Youngsters'.

The Moderns emerged victorious 9½-6½.

Ladies Section by Di Neal

SATURDAY and Tuesday saw ladies taking part in the qualifying round for Carole Brown's Winter Pairs competition.

Good conditions on Saturday yielded the highest Stableford points. Eight pairs go through to the knockout stages to be completed by the end of the winter.

The winning pairs were: Avril Brown & Carole Brown (35), Madeline Skelly & Nicky Stone (31), Jane White & Rosanne Bonfield (31), Sally Woolmington & Liz Walker (28), Ruth Donovan & Judy Walters (28), Liz Thompson & Sue Winkle (26), Marion Hurley & Pat Baldwin (26) and Di Stothard & Sandra March (22).

◆ FULLY DESERVED: Sue Rowe receives The Captain's salver from Dave Wood

Top award for Secretary Sue

THERE were 40 members present when Lyme Regis Bowls Club held its annual dinner and trophy presentation last Saturday at Lyme Regis Golf Club.

Outgoing competitions secretary Charlie Barber officiated while the President's wife, Nola Stephens, handed out the trophies.

Perhaps the most prestigious trophy is the one awarded by the Captain to the person he feels has given selflessly to the running of the Club. This year the captain, Dave Wood, awarded the trophy to club secretary Sue Rowe.

West Bay Sea Angling

Parkman picks up easy win

SUCH was the ease that Jack Parkman won the latest junior competition, that his 888g thick lipped mullet, which won the best fish of the day, would alone have won him the overall prize.

Thirteen members and two guests turned out to fish on a chilly and cloudy day. The sea was flat, calm and clear, and the wind North-easterly 2.

All but two of the competitors managed to catch fish, with some nice sized legal fish being weighed in.

Besides his best fish, Parkman also caught a legal rockling and two legal wrasse, for a total legal weight of 1kg 318g, three times that of runner up Harry Courtice. Other species caught on the day were: flounder, weever, rockling, mullet, wrasse, shanny, blenny, whiting, pollock and pout.

Results - 1st: Jack Parkman 2kg 26g (1kg 318g legal weight), 2nd: Harry Courtice 536g (486g legal weight), 3rd: Aaron Chambers 394g (192g legal weight), Heaviest Flat-fish: Caolan Ayers 52g flounder, Heaviest Round Fish: Jack Parkman 888g thick lipped mullet, Most Species: Jack Parkman 7 species, Heaviest Weever: Robbie Hall 29g, Heaviest Plaice: None caught prize to roll over, Smallest Fish: Caolan Ayers 8g weever, Last fish: Jamie Salvador-Swords 23g whiting, Wooden Spoon: Abbie Button.

Sponsors on the day: Watchouse Cafe, Kay Guppy, Richard "Tiny" Daw, Punch & Judy, Gus Parkman, Paul Lynham and Andrew Fowler.

Indoor

Long progresses

Bridport & WD Club
MIKE Long produced a superb performance in progressing to the last eight of the area knockout of the National 'Champion of Champions' competition.

He recorded a fine 21-12 away win over John Ward, who has won the Dorset Bowls Resort singles title for the last four seasons. Long will now play Darren Nutman of the Moonfleet 2000 in the quarter final.

There was a close finish to Bridport's first county Mixed League programme with a good overall win against Dorchester.

At home, Sylvia Fletcher, Erica Sarson, Roger Cowmeadow & Mike Fletcher won by three, with Lyn and Peter Sandall and Barbara & Keith Jenkins losing by five.

At Dorchester; Lyn Craddock, Ann Parkins, Peter Hunt & Phil Hedges drew 17-17, but Mel Hargett, Mike Craddock, Gill Hunt & Jenny Harding won by four to leave Bridport winners by two shots.

In the Purbeck Trophy Challenge League Bridport faced DOLPHIN (POOLE), one of the favourites to take the title.

Dave Roberts, Ivor Parker & Chris Thorne had a superb overall win and four extra points, with Martin Wilton, Bob Taylor & Brian Rumble dropping a three count on the final end to lose 14-15.

Bridport Ladies B team picked up six of the eight available points in the County Mixed League at the ISLE OF PURBECK with an overall 42-39 win. Pam Gray, Nova Varney, Pat Cowmeadow & Barbara Jenkins lost by six.

However, Erica Sarson, Penny Pither, Joan Griffiths & Jenny Harding, secured a nifty two victory.

Axminster

AXMINSTER beat CHARDSTOCK 103-28 at home with wins on all rinks; Pam Hunter, Sue Bond, Les Clark & Bob Sherborne (39-5), Morrison Brown, Nigel Bond, Jean Kesterton & Margaret Crompton (34-11), and Andy Curtis, Margaret Brown, David Harris & Brian Clark (30-12).

In our only other mixed friendly we lost 58-113 at HONITON. The winners were Malcolm Denslow, Morrison Brown, Nigel Bond & George Mabon (26-22), and John Hill, Jo Barnish, Brian Parsons & Margaret Crompton (23-15).

The men lost their County Over 60s match 71-89 against BUDLEIGH SALTERTON with Mick Hennegan, Sid Milburn, Doug Looskan & John Gough managing a win (25-18).

The Ladies lost their home friendly 35-75 against a very strong DEVON LADIES PATRONS.

Finally, our Ladies triples team of Brenda Edwards, Phil White & Ann Clayton are through to the next round of the National KO Competition after a thrilling win at HONITON.

Sailing

Fraser finds early form

THE October Series at Lyme Regis Sailing Club continued on Sunday with a smaller fleet in the strong north easterlies that whipped up the water, the breaking crests and unexpected gusts adding to colder air temperatures.

All completed the first race. Fraser Earle, in his Laser, was particularly pleased with his performance on a windward/leeward course, but only half continued to the second and third, closely contested between the first three places.

Race One; 1st Dave Stubbs & Paul Aitken (RS400), 2nd Fraser Earle (Laser Radial 203015), 3rd Pete Morton & Cath Aitken (Albacore).

Race Two; 1st Dave Stubbs & Paul Aitken (RS400), 2nd Will Broom & Joe Joyner (RS800 1050), 3rd Andy Robinson (Solo).

Race Three; 1st Will Broom & Joe Joyner (RS800 1050), 2nd Dave Stubbs & Paul Aitken (RS400), 3rd Andy Robinson (Solo).

SW Zone Training for Optimists

SIXTEEN Oppie Cadets were on the water for a coaching course over the weekend, the tiny, relatively stable boats and their intrepid helms performing impressively.

The club hosted an Optimist South West Zone Training weekend, providing expert coaching by three ex-British Optimist team sailors.

"Wind conditions were certainly challenging," said event organiser Suzanne Stubbs.

"But came away from their sessions full of confidence and enthusiasm. We have a strong group who are keen to progress."

Cricket

Broadwindsor mark fine season

BROADWINDSOR Cricket Club celebrated another successful season in the Mid-Wessex Cricket League where they finished third in the West section with a Presentation Evening and Race Night at the Knapp Inn, Beaminster, where valuable funds were raised for the club.

Although they won half of their twelve fixtures, three of the remaining ones were called off through rain, more than any of their competitors. This may have been significant seeing they finished only 13 points behind champions North Perrott.

There was also a raffle for which the club gives thanks to Clipper Teas, The Beauty Room, The Knapp Inn, Sophia's Choice and Bridport and West Bay Golf Club for being generous in their donation of prizes.

Jack Walklett and Chris Park picked up the main playing awards between them, whilst Lesley Waring won the Chairman's Award for services to the club.

THE Osprey Leisure Centre hosted a record breaking fixture in the Under 14s section of the West Dorset Indoor Cricket League as Martinstown beat Weymouth Ladies by 221 runs.

Martinstown 255-5 beat Weymouth Ladies 34 all out

DESPITE a record breaking victory it could have been a different story for Martinstown as, battering first, they lost two wickets in the first over.

Angus Bradley played on second ball from Holly Damien without troubling the scorer and Dave Lewis running himself out also without scoring leaving Martinstown on 6-2.

Recovery

Will Maltby (127*) in partnership with Harry Mitchell (16) set about restoring their innings with some fine stroke play as the score progressed to 45-2.

With Maltby retiring, Weymouth fought back and excellent fielding accounted for Damien Lewis (8) and Dave Lewis (35) both run out.

However, the returning Maltby produced an outstanding innings, combining aggressive stroke play with excellent foot work and shot placement he plundered the Weymouth attack scoring at over 30 runs an over as Martinstown racked up a record indoor total of 255-5.

In light of such huge 'scoreboard pressure' Weymouth struggled against an accurate bowling attack and found runs difficult to come by.

In their efforts to get the score board ticking over three batsmen were run out as Martinstown produced an impressive display in the field.

Both Julie Gear (5) and Gayle Marchent (5) showed grit to keep out the Martinstown attack but, with Harry Mitchell taking a fine catch behind the stumps off the bowling of Damien Lewis (3-0-12-2) to dismiss Catherine Sadler (0), Martinstown ran out winners by 221 runs.

Beardwood bounces back

DOMINIC Beardwood recovered on the back nine to win the low scoring JUNIOR STABLEFORD with 30 points from Alfie Crisp and Ben Prosser.

The seniors' BRIGGS TROPHY, a bogey competition, attracted a relatively large field and it was frontrunner Bernie Styles who scored +2 on both nines who won with +4 to take the title.

Mike List came a very creditable 2nd on +3, while Neil Thomas with +2 came in third, just ahead of several others on +1.

The Ladies OCTOBER MEDAL, DIVISION ONE was won by Cyndy Mudford, who carded a nett 76, while Felicity Poole and Jenny Scott finished in that order both on 77.

Meanwhile, Susan Moore had a brilliant front nine to score a nett 72 to record the best score of the day and the only sub par round, to win DIVISION 2.
